

ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 1833 01874 8522

GC
977.102
AS35AC, 1930

COPYRIGHT
1930

W. Sherwood Gutshall
Editor
Howard A. Emmons
Business Manager

THE PINE WHISPERS of PROGRESS

PUBLISHED BY THE JUNIOR CLASS OF ASHLAND COLLEGE
AT ASHLAND OHIO

1 9 3 0

Foreword

In presenting this number of the Pine Whispers, we were not conscious of absolute achievement but fully realized its limitations and in this book we have striven to catch and bind the spirit and memories of the past.

May these pages, as a tribute, be placed on the altar of our love for Ashland College. In the event that they contribute in some degree, small though it be, to the lore, the traditions and fame of our college, the efforts of the staff will not have been wholly in vain.

Contents

PART I THE COLLEGE

PART II ORGANIZATIONS

PART III ATHLETICS

PART IV FEATURES

Dedication

To

Prof. K. M. Monroe

Member of the college Theology Department and faculty advisor of the Class of '31 for three successive years, a man of high honor and esteem, a master of his profession, and an advisor of good counsel and lofty ideals. To him we reverently dedicate this, the 1930 Pine Whispers of Progress.

KENNETH M. MONROE

Ashland from 1878 to 1930

With the publication of this number of the PINE WHISPERS, the staff felt that it was only just to pay a glowing tribute to the progress and position which Ashland College has enjoyed since its beginning fifty-two years ago.

In this edition the Annual Staff will take its readers back fifty-two years and note many incidents and events of interest which have contributed to the college's progress and brought about its success. Though fifty-two years may seem a long span of time, it has been a short period for so great an expansion and progress as has been accomplished by the Purple and Gold institution.

When it was decided by a group of church folk, of a denomination known as the German Baptist Brethren, that the founding of a college would be a good thing for the church and for Ashland, these good people held a number of meetings at Maple Grove church until plans were finally completed. The first charter was drawn up in February, 1878. This valuable document is now in the possession of Dr. J. Allen Miller, Dean of the Seminary.

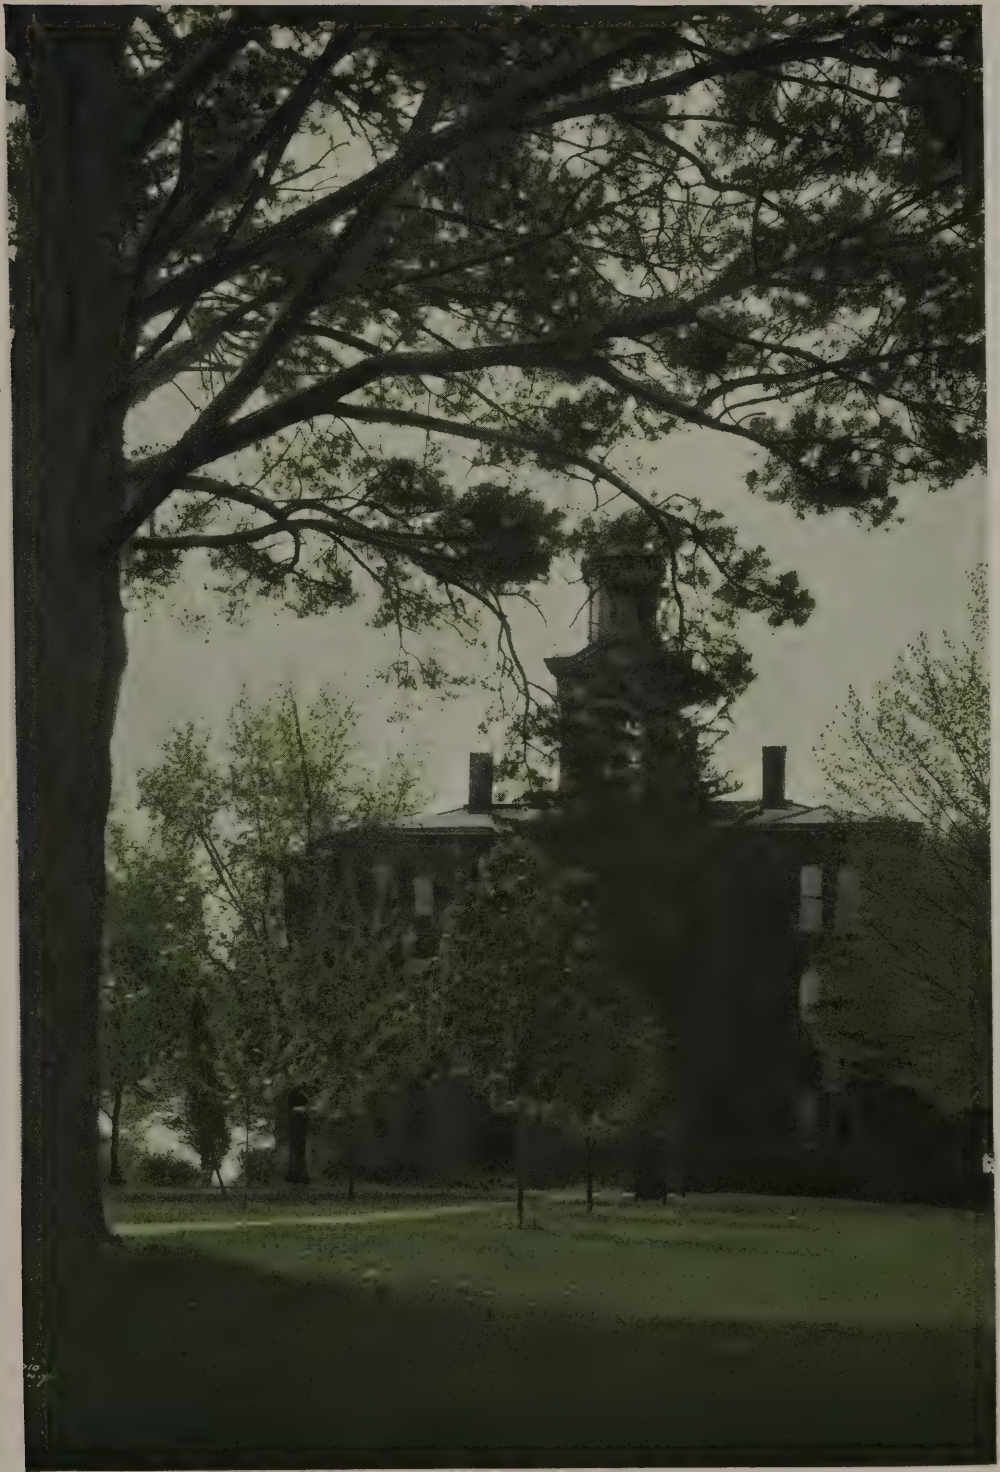

The ink on the charter is unfaded and is signed by the seven incorporators, H. K. Myers, Austin Moherman, John Shidler, Richard Arnold, William Sadler, I. D. Parker and A. M. Dickey. All of them, with several others, were then made trustees of the school. A subscription of $10,000 was received from residents of Ashland to contribute toward the foundation of the college.

Buildings for the new college were designed by George Washington Cramer, now a leading church architect of New York city, whose name appears in "Who's Who". They were accordingly constructed on the thirty-acre lot of land at the south side of Ashland, purchased for the college campus. Only the college building, now known as Founders' Hall, and the dormitory were erected at that time. Twelve acres of the plot were later sold so that the campus now occupies eighteen acres.

(Continued on page 9)

Ashland from 1878 to 1930

(Continued from page 8)

Faculty members at the opening of school were: Solomon Z. Sharp, President and Professor of Mental and Moral Science; Leonard Huber, Professor of Latin, German and French; J. E. Stubbs, Professor of Greek and Bible; David Bailey, Professor of Mathematics; Jacob Keim, Professor of Natural Science; F. P. Foster, Head of the Business Department; John C. Ewing, Professor of Music, and H. F. Hixon, teacher in the common branches.

The first year's enrollment was 178 and two years later the first graduation exercises were held with four graduates, Hiram F. Hixon, Montana City, Kansas; F. Marian Plank, Ashland; Elliott D. Wigton, Perrysville and Samuel H. Yeater, Millersburg, all of whom had attended other colleges before coming here. Hixon, it may be seen, acted as a teacher while an undergraduate in the institution.

Before ten years had passed in the existence of Ashland College, there was a disagreement in the Brethren Church as to the conducting of the school, finally resulting in the rechartering of the school as Ashland University in July, 1888. This rescue movement by one group of the disagreeing church members preserved the school until reconciliation could be obtained. The members of the second group of incorporators were: Vernon E. Wampler, and Samuel Brumbaugh, both of Dayton; Isaac Kilhefner and S. E. Shook, both of Ashland; J. Allen Miller and C. E. Deffenbaugh, then both of New Lexington. The branch which took out this second incorporation was a liberal branch of the Brethren Church known as The Brethren Church of America. The name Ashland University, which was a misfit as the institution was not a university, was later abandoned and the first name resumed, continuing to the present day.

A number of outstanding events have contributed to the growth of the college. During the administration of Rev. J. L. Gillin as president of the college from 1906 to 1911, the finances of the institution were bettered and the courses of study were revised completely.

Government and policies of the college have worked as a benefit to its progress. The government is in the control of a board of twelve trustees. The college affords training in preparatory, normal, commercial and regular college as well as musical work. The Normal Department is fully recognized by The State Department of Public Instruction for the training of elementary teachers and, combined with the College of arts and sciences, for the training of high school teachers. Training is Christian but not sectarian so that students represent every church.

(Continued on page 10)

Ashland from 1878 to 1930

(Continued from page 9)

Buildings and equipment have been gradually added to the college until it possesses structures of which it may well be proud. In 1923 the need of a library and administration building was keenly felt. A subscription campaign was started in the city and soon $55,000 was secured and the building was erected at the east side of the campus. It is an imposing structure and adequately houses the administration offices, class rooms and library.

In September, 1926 tragedy stalked through the campus and took toll by fire the old gymnasium, which had been erected in 1902. The blaze broke out at night and the next morning only a few lockers were left standing to greet the college athletes. Soon another campaign was launched, to which Ashland residents again generously contributed. When $90,000 was secured, the erection of a new gymnasium was begun and the building was ready for use by the opening of the fall term in 1927.

These buildings, added to Founders' Hall, the dormitory, heating plant, and the equipment of laboratories, hospital rooms, library, athletic field and others necessities, gives the college facilities for capably handling its students who reach greater numbers each year.

Much of the development of the college has taken place since the administration of the present president, Dr. E. E. Jacobs, who began his administration in 1919. He set out to increase the financial resources and the enrollment of the college and has succeeded in these enterprises as well as in many others. The new buildings have been erected since his administration. The permanent endowment of the College has been ma-

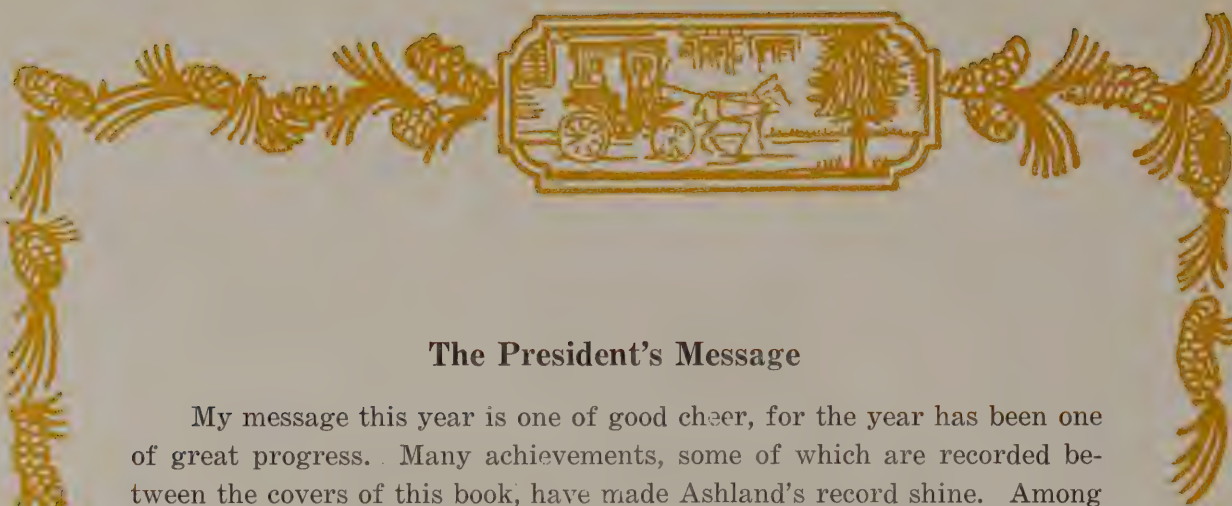

(Continued on page 25)

The College

The President's Message

My message this year is one of good cheer, for the year has been one of great progress. Many achievements, some of which are recorded between the covers of this book, have made Ashland's record shine. Among other things worthy of mention, is that the attendance has shown no decline although there has been a general falling off in the number of young people attending college.

First of all, let it be known that Ashland College has gained admission to the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, which is the regional standardizing agency for this territory. Perhaps the College could have entered sooner, but we only sought admission when we were very certain that we were well above the minimum requirements. The benefit of this recognition will redound to the Alumni and present enrollment of students alike.

Secondly, Ashland had one man among a very select number who shared in the discovery of a new world. The Chicago Tribune of March 14th carried a list of seven men who participated in the discovery of the new planet, and Mr. Thomas B. Gill, ex-08, was among that number. It is a distinct pleasure to record the fact that Mr. Gill had his training in elementary mathematics at Ashland College. The College is justly proud of this very enviable distinction.

More than this, Ashland had one man on the mythical All-Ohio football team for 1929, and one on the second team. And what is more, since Fred Schmuck, an Ashland graduate, has had charge of athletics here—for the past three years—Ashland has won 71 percent of all her intercollegiate contests and lost 29 percent. Ashland is now completing her first trial year under the Ohio Athletic Conference rules, and hence did not play freshmen.

All in all, the year has been good, but better years are ahead.

"Behold how far the little candle shineth."

EDWIN ELMORE JACOBS, President

A. B., College of Wooster; M. Sc., Mt. Union College; Student University of Chicago; Student Harvard University; Some time instructor in the College of Wooster Summer School; Fellow Clark University; Ph. D., Clark University; Member of Amer. Assoc. Adv. Sc.; Amer. Sociological Society; Fellow R. S. A., London.

Professor of Biology

JOHN ALLEN MILLER

Student Hillsdale College; A. B., Ashland College; B. D., M. A., Hiram College; Student University of Chicago; D. D., Ashland College; Europe and Holy Land, 1926.

Professor of Philosophy

ROBERT RAY HAUN

A. B., University of Virginia; M. A., Vanderbilt University; One Year Residence in University of Chicago (Ph. D. in preparation.)

Professor of Physics; Dean of Men

CHARLES LEROY ANSPACH

A. B., Ashland College; Student University of Toledo; M. A., University of Michigan; Fellow in Education at University of Michigan; Ph. D., University of Michigan; Member of Amer. Assoc. Adv. Sc.; Amer. Sociological Club; Alpha Kappa Delta; Phi Delta Kappa.

Dean and Head of Department of Education

LEVI LEEDY GARBER

A. B., Ohio State University; M. A., Litt. D., Ashland College; Graduate Student University of Chicago; Research Student Library British Museum, London, 1925; Some time Principal Belleville High School; Formerly Head Department of English, Kent State Normal College.

Professor of English

EDWARD GLENN MASON

A. B., Defiance College; M. A., Ohio State University; Assistant in History, Ohio State University, 1928-31; Ph. D., (in preparation) Ohio State University, 1929-30.

Director of Teacher Training

MELVIN A. STUCKEY

A. B., Ashland College; Geneva Training School; B. D., Ashland Seminary; Th. M., Princeton University.

Professor of Christian Education

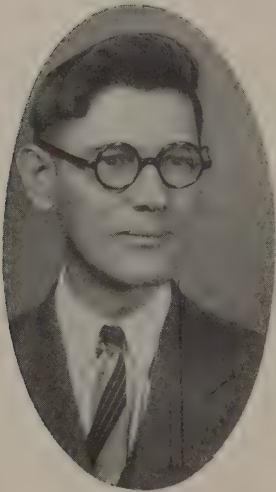

1930

LOREN BLACK

A. B., Ashland College; Student Indiana University; M. A., University of Michigan; Residence for the Ph. D., begun, University of Michigan.

Professor of Mathematics and Mechanical Drawing

RAYMOND W. BIXLER

A. B., Mt. Union College; Student Harvard University; M. A., Columbia University; Student University of Chicago; Assistant in History, Ohio State University; Ph. D., Ohio State University; Member American Historical Association.

Professor of History

MILTON PUTERBAUGH

A. B., Ashland College; Student Iowa Teachers' College; Research Assistant, Northwestern University; Ph. D. (in preparation), University of Chicago. Member of Amer. Assoc. Adv. Sc.; Member of American Chemical Society. Alpha Chi Sigma. Sigma Xi.

Professor of Chemistry

ARTHUR L. DELOZIER

A. B., Ashland College; M. A., Lehigh University; Student French School, State College, Pennsylvania; Student at the Sorbonne; Toured France, Spain, Italy, 1927. Charter member of l'Amicale de Penn State.

Professor of Romance Languages

KENNETH M. MONROE

A. B., University of Southern California; Th. B., Th. M., Xenia Seminary. (Th. D., in preparation). Europe, Egypt and Holy Land, 1926; Doctor's degree in preparation.

Professor of Old Testament History and Theology

MORRIS G. CALDWELL

A. B., Carroll College; M. A., Ph. D., University of Wisconsin; Field Research, ibid., 1928-29; Member American Anthropological Assoc.; American Political Science Assoc.; American Sociological Society; Alpha Kappa Delta.

Professor of Economics and Sociology

1930

ROY ROLLAND ULLMAN

A. B., Ohio University; M. A., Ohio State University; Research Assistant in Education, University of Michigan, 1929; Ph. D. ibid., 1929; Phi Delta Kappa; Alpha Kappa Delta.

Professor of Education

MARY PYLE ANDREWS

A. B., Huron College; M. A., University of Chicago; Some time Teacher in Whitworth College.

Associate Professor of English

EARL OTTO

A. B., M. A., (Ph. D., residence requirements absolved; thesis published) University of Cincinnati; Assistant in Chemistry, ibid.; Professor of Chemistry, Natung Technical School (China); Some time Professor of Chemistry, Clemson College, also Albright College; Member Amer. Chem. Soc.

Associate Professor of Chemistry

ELIZABETH LENTZ LESLIE

A. B., Ashland College; Student Bowling Green State Normal; University of Chicago. (M. A. in preparation.)

Instructor in Elementary Education and Dean of Women

ANNA BARBARA STUCKEY

Graduate of Lyceum Arts Conservatory, Chicago; Student of Katrine Howard-Ward, Chicago; Cleveland Institute of Music; Student of Beryl-Rubenstein, Cleveland; Rudolph Reuter, Chicago; Theory and composition with Jeanne Boyd, Chicago. Studied in Leipzig, Germany, Conservatory, 1925-26.

Instructor in Piano

CLARA WORST MILLER

B. Litt., Hiram College; Student University of Chicago; A. B., M. A., Ashland College.

Instructor in Latin

1930

THELMA SLACK

B. O., A. B., Ashland College; Traveled with Shakesperean Company; Played with the White Lyceum Bureau of Boston; one time member of Dramatic Stock Company.

Expression and Public Speaking

FLORENCE GRAY BEALL

A. B., Ohio University; High School Teaching experience; M. A., Columbia University; Research assistant in Education, 1927-28, University of Michigan; in English 1928-29, ibid., Ph. D., dissertation in preparation, ibid.

Associate Professor of Education

MARTIN SHIVELY

D. D., Ashland College.

Bursar

LULU WOOD

A. B., Ashland College; Library Course, University of Michigan.

Librarian

FRED C. SCHMUCK

Student Denison University; A. B., Ashland College; Captain Ashland Football Team, 1922; University of Illinois, summer 1925; Coaching, University of Michigan.

Director Physical Education for Men

TREVA JANE ETTER

A. B., Ashland College.

Recorder

1930

NORMA LEE HURDLE

Chicago Musical College; Lyceum Arts
Conservatory; Studied with Maurice G.
Ivins; Anna Daze; Edward Nies-Berger.

Instructor in Voice

BERNICE BICKSLER

Ashland College; B. Mus., Chicago
Musical College.

Assistant in Piano

HERBERT SLOUGH

A. B., Ohio State University; Member of Ohio State Football Team, 1927.

Freshman Coach

EDWARD LESLIE BOWSHER

Ohio Wesleyan; Ohio Northern; A. B.,
Defiance College; M. A., University of Chicago. Credits toward Ph. D., University of Michigan. Superintendent of Ashland City Schools.

Associate Director Teacher Training

Ashland from 1878 to 1930

(Continued from page 10)

terially increased. The grounds have been beautified until Ashland College possesses one of the finest campuses in the state. The athletic bowl has been constructed and the student enrollment doubled during the four years between 1923 and 1927.

A faculty of 25 members, highly educated and selectively chosen, instruct the students in courses in arts, sciences, divinity and normal departments, voice, expression, violin and piano. Since Doctor Jacobs' administration a summer school has been established which attracts a large number of teachers for special normal work and gives college students an opportunity to make up deficiencies or to obtain additional credits to their college work during the fall and spring terms.

An important feature of the college curriculum is the Theological Seminary of the Brethren Church held in connection with the college and leading to the degree of Bachelor of Theology. Dr. J. Allen Miller, who served as president of the college from 1899 to 1906, has served as Dean of the Seminary since 1908.

In athletics, Ashland has made wonderful progress, particularly in the past five years. It may be encouraging to mention that in the last two years, more than three-fourths of the athletic contests have been victories for the Purple and Gold.

Ashland College will be a member of the Ohio Conference starting the fall term of 1930. This honor will add glory to the school which is feared in most every football, basketball or baseball game.

And so, the 1930 PINE WHISPERS Staff takes this opportunity to congratulate Ashland College for its steadfast, upward stride in the past fifty-two years and earnestly hopes that the years in the future may be fruitful in increasing the educational advantages for those of America's youth who may trek to the school that stands on "top of the city."

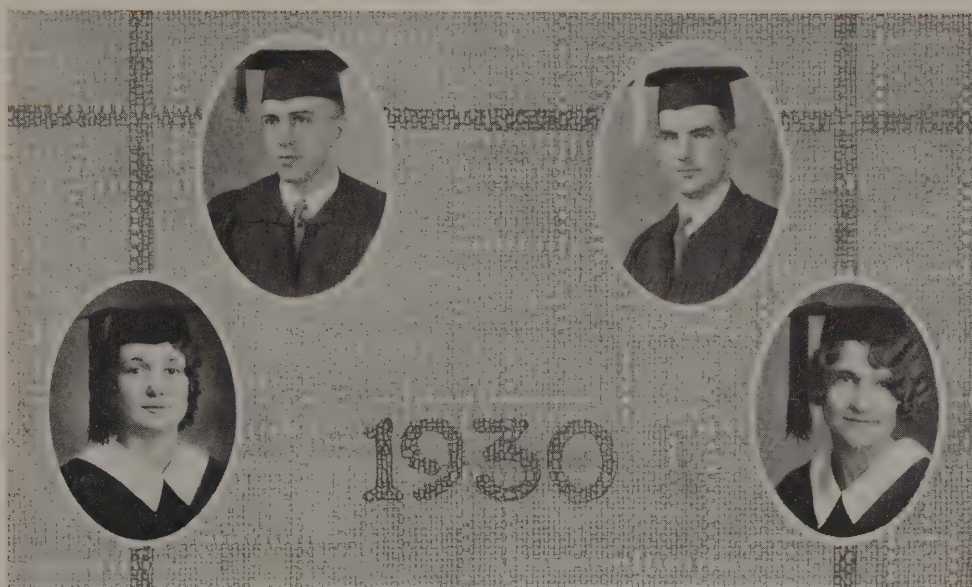

Class Officers

President - Cassel Jacobs

Vice-President
Noel E. Shaffer

Secretary-Treasurer
Opal Rupert

PINE WHISPERS

RALPH THAUVETTE

B. S. in Education
Cleveland, Ohio

Freshman Football Coach, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Class President, 2; Varsity Football, 1; Varsity Basketball, 1; Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Manager, 4; Y. M. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Philo, 1, 2; Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Associate Editor Pine Whispers, 3.

CECIL TOWSLEE

Bachelor of Science
Nankin, Ohio

Science Club, 1, 2, 3; Scribes, 4; Student Assistant in Chemistry, 3, 4.

ELIZABETH JUNK

Bachelor of Arts
Washington C. H., Ohio

Philomathean Literary Society, 1, 2; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Educational Club, 4; May Day Attendant, 3; Associate Pageant Director, 4.

DOROTHY OBERHOLTZER

Bachelor of Arts
Clay City, Indiana

Girls' Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; May Day, 1, 2, 3, 4; Hesperian, 1, 2; Educational Club, 4.

1930

ADA PATTERSON

Bachelor of Arts
Ashland, Ohio

Sociological Club, 4.

CHRISTINE WITTER

Bachelor of Arts
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Girls' Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Gospel Team, 1, 2, 3, 4; Hesperian, 1; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Sociological Club, 4; May Day, 1, 2, 3, 4.

CASSEL JACOBS

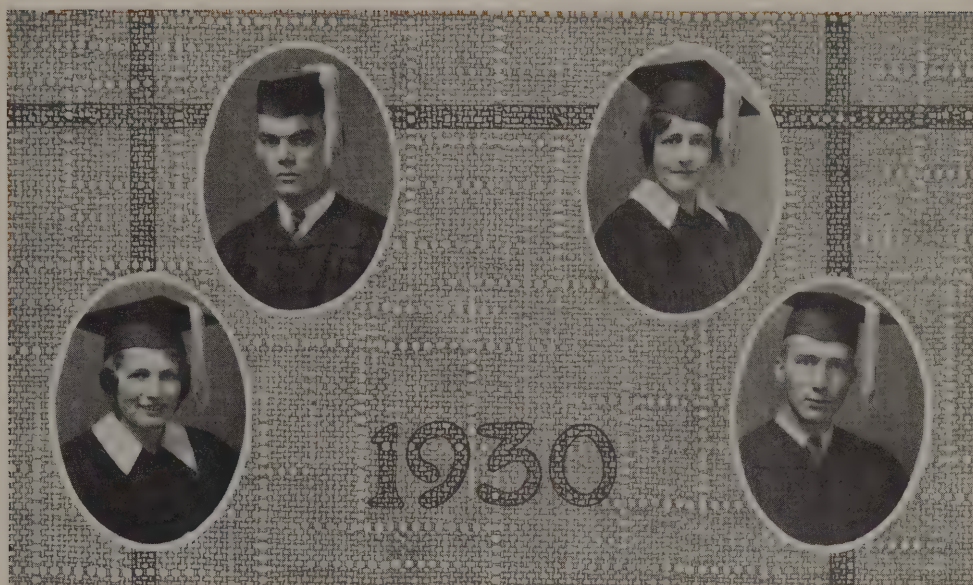

Bachelor of Arts
Ashland, Ohio

Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Class President, 4; Class Play, 3, 4; May Day, 3, 4; Footlighters, 2, 3; Editor Pine Whispers, 3; Collegian Staff, 4.

FRANK LONERO

B. S. in Education
Cleveland, Ohio

Varsity Football, 1, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball, 1, 3, 4; Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Play, 3; Y. M. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; College Minstrel Show, 4.

FREDERICK HARE
Bachelor of Arts
Meyersdale, Pennsylvania

Varsity Football, 2, 3, 4; Collegian, 3;
Pine Whispers, 4; Assistant Zoologist, 4.

ELIZABETH GLOVER
Bachelor of Arts
Massillon, Ohio

Gospel Team, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A., 4; Senior Class Play.

OPAL RUPERT
Bachelor of Arts
Polk, Ohio

Class Secretary-Treasurer, 2, 4; Hesperian, 1, 2; Science Club, 2; Collegian
Staff, 4; Educational Club, 4; May Queen, 3; Salutatorian, 4.

ROBERT UHL
Bachelor of Arts
Marion, Ohio

Student Baseball Manager, 4; Sociological Club, 4.

1930

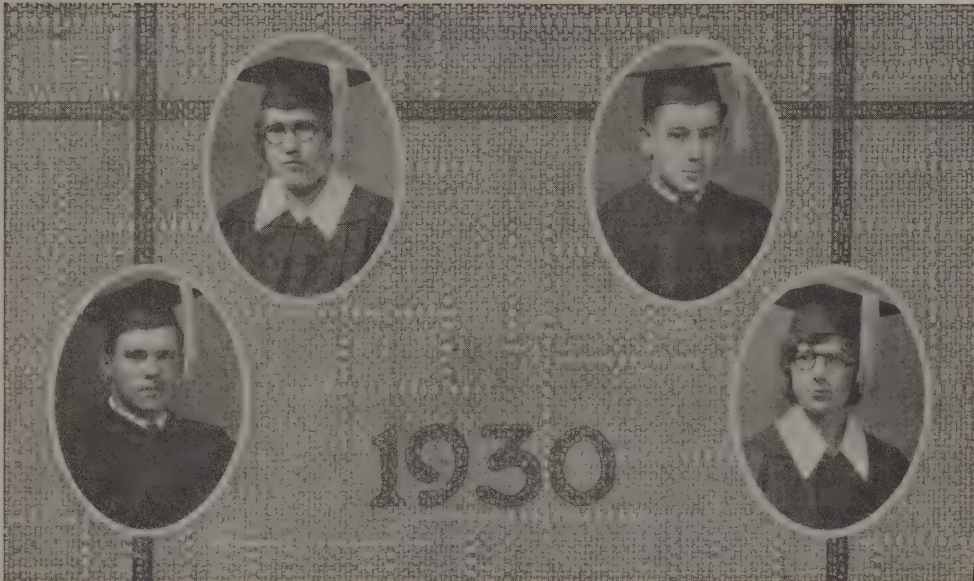

FRANCES RUSH
Bachelor of Arts
Hayesville, Ohio
Y. W. C. A., 2.

MILO BROWN
B. S. in Education
Ashland, Ohio
Philomathean, 1; S. A. T. C., 1; Baseball,
1; Sociological Club, 4.

DELBERT CATON
B. S. in Education
Ashland, Ohio
Varsity Football, 1, 2, 4; Varsity basketball, 1.

HATTIE SHELDON
Bachelor of Arts
Bellevue, Africa
Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Missionary; Girls'
Gospel Team, 1, 2, 3, 4; May Queen.

LUCETTA HIBBS

Bachelor of Arts
Uniontown, Pennsylvania

Hesperian, 1, 2; Science Club, 1, 2; Y. W.
C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Gospel Team, 1, 2, 3, 4;
Sociological Club, 4.

ROBERT MCKINLEY

Bachelor of Arts
Ashland, Ohio

Cheer Leader, 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

RAYMOND NOVOTNY

B. S. in Education
Cleveland, Ohio

Varsity Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball, 1; Varsity Tennis, 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club, 2; Glee Club, 2, 3, 4; President Glee Club, 4; Philomathean Literary Society, 1,
2; Minstrel Show, 3, 4; Class Play, 3, 4;
May Day Pageant, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A.,
1, 2, 3, 4; Educational Club, 4.

OMA HAWBECKER

Bachelor of Arts
Mt. Carroll, Illinois

Gospel Team, 1, 2, 3, 4; Hesperian, 1, 2;
Educational Club, 4; Sociological Club, 4.

1930

ALLEN SCHOLL
Bachelor of Science
Ashland, Ohio

Science Club, 1, 2, 3 V. P.; Y. M. C. A., 2, 3, 4; May Day, 2, 3, 4; First Assistant in Chemistry Department, 3, 4; Student Recreation Committee, 3; Class Play, "The Enemy"; Sociological Club, 4.

ELIZABETH BLACK
Bachelor of Arts
Shiloh, Ohio

Class Vice-President, 3; May Day, 1, 3; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Hesperian, 1, 2; Educational Club, 4; Collegian Staff, 3, 4; Pine Whispers Staff, 3, 4; Science Club, 1, 2; Scholarship, 3; Dramatic Class, 1, 2, 3, 4; Valedictorian, 4.

RUTH MYERS
B. S. in Education
Dayton, Ohio

Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Sociological Club, 4.

CONARD SANDY
Bachelor of Arts
Annville, Pennsylvania

Y. M. C. A., 2, 3; Seminary, 2, 3; Forensic Club, 3; Gospel Team, 2, 3, 4; Hesperian, 2; Science Club, 2.

TYROL NOBLE
Bachelor of Arts
Lost Creek, Kentucky

Student of Eastern Kentucky Teachers' College, 1; Debate, 1, 2, 3, 4; Gospel Team, 1, 2, 3, 4; Scribes, 3, 4; Collegian Staff, 3, 4; Kentucky Scholarship, 1, 2, 3, 4.

EDWARD ERB
B. S. in Education
Lakewood, Ohio

Varsity Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Assistant Physical Instructor, 2, 3; Spanish Club, 2.

NOEL SHAFFER
Bachelor of Science
Wadsworth, Ohio

Editor Pine Whispers, 3; President Class, 3; Vice President Class, 4; President Educational Club, 4; Managing Editor The Collegian, 4; Football Manager, 4; Vice President, Y. M. C. A., 4; Member of Scribes Literary Society, 3, 4.

GLADYS LAVENGOOD
B. S. in Education
Big Prairie, Ohio

Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Little Theatre, 1, 2, 3, 4; Sociological Club, 4; Educational Club, 4.

1930

FRANCES BLACK

Bachelor of Arts
Peru, Indiana

Y. W. C. A., 1, 2; Hesperian, 1, 2; Girls'
Gospel Team, 1, 2, 4.

HAROLD KROPF

Bachelor of Arts
Orrville, Ohio

Sociological Club, 4.

FRANCIS SPRANG

B. S. in Education
Perrysville, Ohio

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4.

ELIZABETH RINGLE

Bachelor of Science
Nova, Ohio

Hesperian, 1, 2; Y. W. C. A., 4; Class
Play; Gospel Team, 1, 2, 4; Educational Club, 4; Sociological Club, 4; Science
Club, 4.

DONNA WALLS
B. S. in Education
Mansfield, Ohio

VERA SMYTHE
B. S. in Education
Mansfield, Ohio

ELDRED AUBREY
Bachelor of Arts
Sullivan, Ohio

DEAN REX
B. S. in Education
Mansfield, Ohio

Pastor Christian churches at Polk and Sullivan.

1930

GEORGE DONGES

B. S. in Education

Ashland, Ohio

Varsity Football, 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball, 2, 3.

GLENN WORKMAN

Bachelor of Science

Danville, Ohio

Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Assistant Zoologist.

THEODORE DYBO

B. S. in Education

Cleveland, Ohio

Varsity Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Baseball Manager, 3; Spanish Club, 2.

MAURICE JOHNSON

B. S. in Education

Ashland, Ohio

Football, 2; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Baseball, 3, 4.

ELSIE SHIERY

Bachelor of Arts

Ashland, Ohio

CLAIRE EMERICK

B. S. in Education

Jeromesville, Ohio

ELLIS JEFFERY

B. S. in Education

West Salem, Ohio

WILLIAM MILLER

Bachelor of Arts

Burbank, Ohio

HELEN HERRING

B. S. in Education

Mansfield, Ohio

VIRGINIA STARK

B. S. in Education

Mansfield, Ohio

EDITH LAUSTBAUGH

B. S. in Education

Mansfield, Ohio

LEO KENT

B. S. in Education

Ashland, Ohio

ELEANOR STEVENS
Two Year Education
Galion, Ohio

"The true way to render ourselves happy is to love our duty and find in it our pleasure."

VIRGINIA WAGNER
Two Year Education
Mansfield, Ohio

"The mind ought sometimes to be diverted, that it may return to better thinking."

PAULINE HEIFNER
Two Year Education
Ashland, Ohio

"An ounce of cheerfulness is worth a pound of sadness to serve God with."

MABEL CRAWFORD
Bachelor of Arts
Whittier, California

Girls' Gospel Team, 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A., 1; Golden Bear Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Philomathean Literary Society, 1, 2.

ETHEL CARL
Two Year Education
Jeromesville, Ohio

"Prudent, cautious self-control is wisdom's root."

HELEN PARKER
Two Year Education
Loudonville, Ohio

"Quietness is an indication of ability to think."

EVELYN GARBER
Two Year Education
Belleville, Ohio

"A kind heart is a fountain of gladness, making everything in its vicinity freshen into smiles."

MARGARET BOLLES
Two Year Education
Brunswick, Ohio

"Wisdom is oftentimes nearer when we stoop than when we soar."

VESTA GARVERICH
Two Year Education
Galion, Ohio

"Fine manners are like personal beauty—a letter of credit everywhere."

LORENA LEWIS
Two Year Education
Perry, Iowa

"Good nature, easy humor, simplicity, credulity."

DOROTHY VAN DYKE
Two Year Education
Mansfield, Ohio

"A simple trust in God is the most essential ingredient in moral sublimity of character."

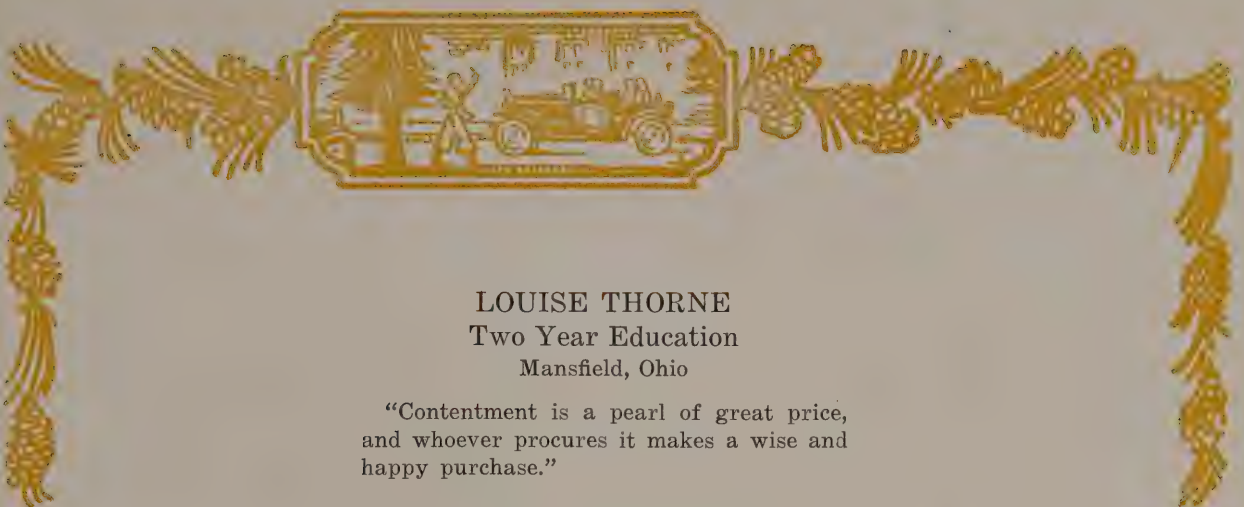

GERALDINE MOXLEY
Two Year Education
Brunswick, Ohio

"The life is long that answers life's great end."

ANNA HEMMINGER
Two Year Education
Savannah, Ohio

"Nothing is of more value than complaisance."

LOUISE THORNE
Two Year Education
Mansfield, Ohio

"Contentment is a pearl of great price, and whoever procures it makes a wise and happy purchase."

GLADYS WHITNEY
Two Year Education
Danville, Ohio

"Elegance of manner is the outgrowth of refined and exalted sense."

DORIS FREDERICK
Two Year Education
Loudonville, Ohio

"Moderation is commonly firm, and firmness is commonly successful."

RUBIE EMERICK
Two Year Education
Jeromesville, Ohio

"Thy modesty is a candle to thy merit."

HELEN LOWRY
Two Year Education
Lodi, Ohio

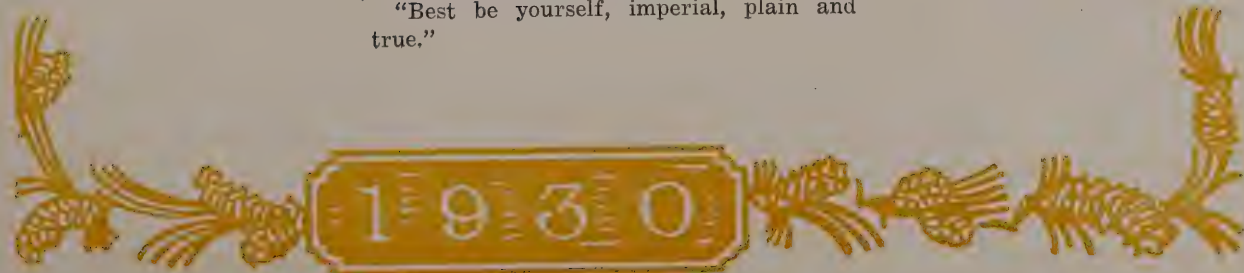

"A soft, meek, patient, humble, tranquil, spirit—a true lady."

MILDRED PICKING
Two Year Education
Mansfield, Ohio

"Knowledge, love, power—there is the complete life."

MARTHA STONE
Two Year Normal
Ashland, Ohio

"Best be yourself, imperial, plain and true."

1930

Class Officers

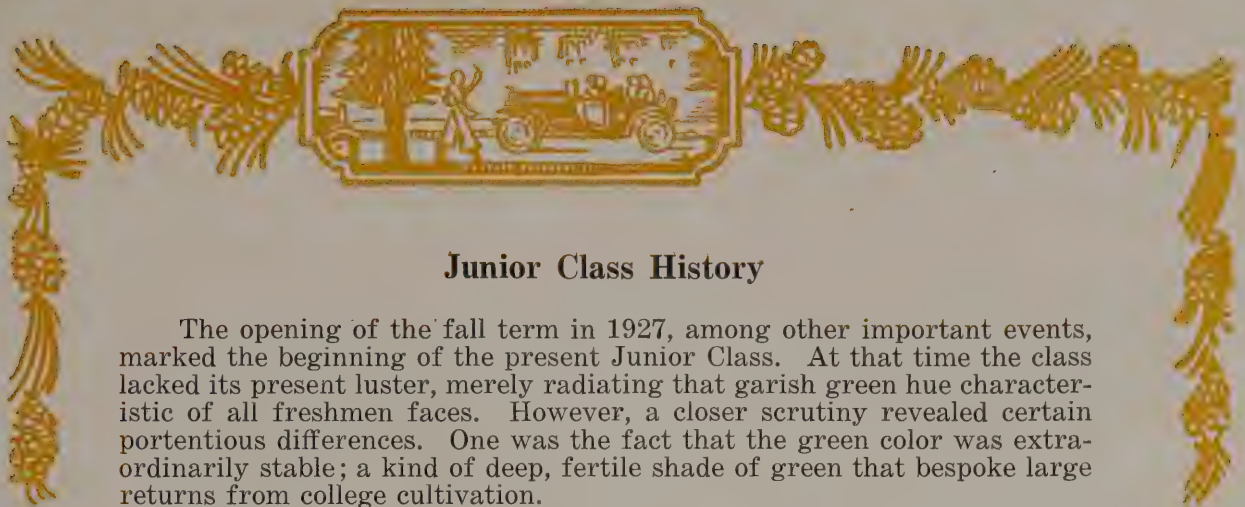

President - Russell Brown

Vice-President Donald Carter

Secretary - Elizabeth Beal

Treasurer - Ward Pfeiffer

PINE WHISPERS

Junior Class History

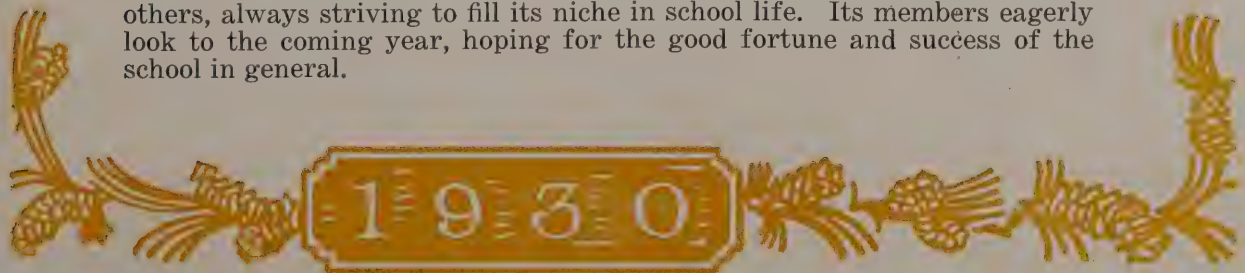

The opening of the fall term in 1927, among other important events, marked the beginning of the present Junior Class. At that time the class lacked its present luster, merely radiating that garish green hue characteristic of all freshmen faces. However, a closer scrutiny revealed certain portentous differences. One was the fact that the green color was extraordinarily stable; a kind of deep, fertile shade of green that bespoke large returns from college cultivation.

No sooner had school got well under way when predictions became justifiable. Activities of all sorts were evident. The male members acquired the habit of long moonlight walks in the country. Some would even arise from bed to take these invigorating strolls. Then there were the scientific abrasion tests conducted with "sophmoric" aid. The object was to ascertain the amount of abrasion between a wooden paddle and a freshman's trousers. The results varied with different experiments and no startling conclusions were drawn. All this while the ladies of the class upheld its dignity by their shy, demure behavior. This must have been unnatural, for later, many a fervent heart beat passionately in its maiden breast. Then a class organization was formed. This gave rise to a flaunting of class colors on the flagstaff, the blarney stone and by means of class sweaters. Such college traditions as freshmen caps and "no dating until Thanksgiving," were well received, and usually obeyed. Other expressions of sport that year were two parties, each of which was well attended and enjoyed.

The second year opened in the usual way. Our heroes and heroines were promptly on hand to welcome and advise the new freshmen. A new organization was effected, and the class settled down to serious, studious effort. That winter another party was given, at which festivities were of the usual high order. A similarly happy occasion, in the form of a picnic was held in the spring. At the end of this year the class was grieved to lose many of its valuable and comely members, who graduated to fill important educational and other positions. On the whole, it was a year of success, made outstanding by the inauguration of the Freshman-Sophomore football classic and other events.

The third and present year of the class followed the usual trend of its accomplishments. The Freshman Class was stimulated to organization. The Annual Staff was created, which innovated certain selling policies of note. Then a glorious, glittering Junior-Freshman reception was promoted, making for good feeling and association on the whole. Professor Monroe, the class advisor, entertained the class at a party, which outdid all others with its program. Other activities to be briefly noted were the class play, "Merton of the Movies," and the Junior-Senior Banquet. The class also feels moderately proud of the participation of its members in various school organizations, such as the "Sociological Club," the "College Band," various athletic teams and other extra-curricular activities.

Thus the class reviews its record, regretful of some events, proud of others, always striving to fill its niche in school life. Its members eagerly look to the coming year, hoping for the good fortune and success of the school in general.

1930

ORRIE FINKEL
Major—English
Wellington, Ohio

The more one knows her, the lovelier and more full of life she becomes.

KATHRYN BELL
Major—Domestic Science
Ashland, Ohio

A friendly heart who has plenty of friends.

WARD PFEIFFER
Major—History
Meyersdale, Pennsylvania

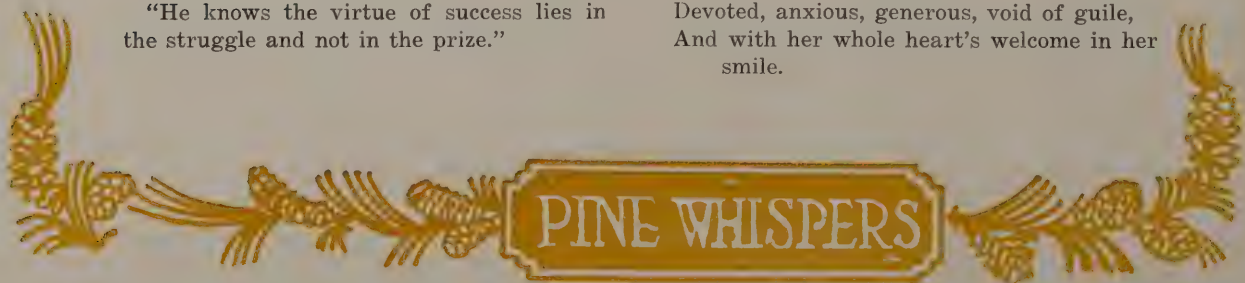

A gentleman who is a man of truth, lord of his own actions, and expresses that lordship in his behavior.

RUSSELL BROWN
Major—Economics
Ashland, Ohio

"He knows the virtue of success lies in the struggle and not in the prize."

ELIZABETH BEAL
Major—Social Science
Canton, Ohio

Devoted, anxious, generous, void of guile, And with her whole heart's welcome in her smile.

ROSALYN BARRY

Major—English

New Haven, Ohio

She is witty, bright, winning and gay,
Never wearing a frown, even on a rainy day.

PAUL WATSON

Major—History

Coshocton, Ohio

Is it possible that man should be so perfectly changed by love that you cannot know him to be the same individual?

HOWARD EMMONS

Major—Economics

Ashland, Ohio

“A friend may well be reckoned the masterpiece of time.”

VIRGINIA SCHULTZ

Major—English

Ashland, Ohio

By a personality that is attractive and good natured, Virginia has won her way with ease into the companionship and confidence of all who enjoy her acquaintance.

YOSHIO WAJIMA

Major—Mathematics

Tokyo, Japan

Idleness has no place in his life.

1930

ERNEST PINE
Major—Theology
Long Beach, California

"Faithful and earnest,
Kindhearted and true,
Ready to do his best,
In all there is to do."

ORVILLE LORENZ
Major—Theology
Long Beach, California

"High erected thoughts seated in the heart of courtesy."

SHERWOOD GUTSHALL
Major—English
Lewistown, Pennsylvania

"By deeds, not words, his noble traits are ever brought to life; his friendship—that to be desired and prized."

LOUISE KIMMEL
Major—History
Gratis, Ohio

Louise is kind, sincere, and loyal, and willing to help wherever she is needed.

ETHEL BAUM
Major—Latin
Ashland, Ohio

She portrays the life of service, loyalty, and scholarship.

MARY BITTINGER

Major—History
Ashland, Ohio

Happy, thoughtful, kind and true,
There's no favor she will not do.

GLENN WARSTLER

Major—History
North Canton, Ohio

He is a well-made man who has a good determination.

RUTH SHANER

Major—Latin
Jeromesville, Ohio

"She's cheerful, vivacious and gay,
She's earnest at work and at play."

KENNETH STOUFER

Major—History
Ashland, Ohio

"His heart and hands are both open and free,
What he has he gives to his friends."

HELEN SMILIE

Major—Economics
Ashland, Ohio

"Nothing is too much for her to do for a friend."

1930

MARY FLUKE
Major—History
Ashland, Ohio

"Heart on her lips, and soul within her eyes, Soft as her clime and sunny as the skies."

RALPH RICHARDS
Major—Mathematics
Nankin, Ohio

"The world knows little of its greatest men."

VERA LINDOWER
Major—Mathematics
Canton, Ohio

"Of noble mind, serene and kind."

RAYMOND KLINGENSMITH
Major—Theology
Ventura, California

"Since climbing is good and I enjoy it, why stop short of the top?"

LENORA DEISCH
Major—Theology
Bunker Hill, Indiana

"Knowledge, truth and virtue are her theme."

DOROTHY BLACK
Major—Education
Shelby, Ohio

If you want a friend who is a mighty good sport and one whom you can absolutely trust, you could not find a better one than Dorothy.

DONALD CARTER
Major—Theology
Long Beach, California

"In every glance there broke without control
The flashes of a bright and noble soul."

LEE BROOK
Major—Biology
Mansfield, Ohio

"He, while others slept, was toiling upward in the night."

CLARETTA ROSS
Major—History
Ashland, Ohio

Quiet and modest, yet ever so kind,
More of a lady you seldom will find.

MARY DONLEY
Major—English
Ashland, Ohio

She is quiet and unassuming in her manner, but there is always a smile and kind word for everyone.

1930

DONALD BAKER
Major—Social Science
Warren, Ohio

Dutch is a man who should make a great author, or philosopher, or orator, or something.

SAM DONLEY
Major—Natural Science
Ashland, Ohio

"If worry were the only cause of death, he would live forever."

PAUL DAVIS
Major—Theology
Peru, Indiana

"A simple, manly character need never make an apology."

BERNARD FINLEY
Major—Chemistry
Millersburg, Ohio

"Earnest and steady endeavor will some day receive its reward."

CARL KOLP
Major—Sociology
North Canton, Ohio

"What I must do is what concerns me—not what people think."

ROBERT KOPP
Major—Economics
Ashland, Ohio

"Cheerful people live longer on earth and live longer in our memories."

DEFOREST LEWIS
Major—Sociology
Perry, Iowa

"Earnest and steady endeavor will sometime receive its reward."

HOWARD MAXHEIMER
Major—Mathematics
Ashland, Ohio

His quiet ways and his faithful work are lessons to those who study.

EVERETT NISWONGER
Major—Theology
New Lebanon, Ohio

"Capable, dependable, true as steel, What more need we say?"

MARGUERITE OTTO
Major—Chemistry
Ashland, Ohio

Her future is aglow with possibilities.

ROBERT RILEY
Major—Economics
Ashland, Ohio

A cheerful helper, always ready to comfort a fellow in need.

CHARLOTTE ROWLAND
Major—English
Lodi, Ohio

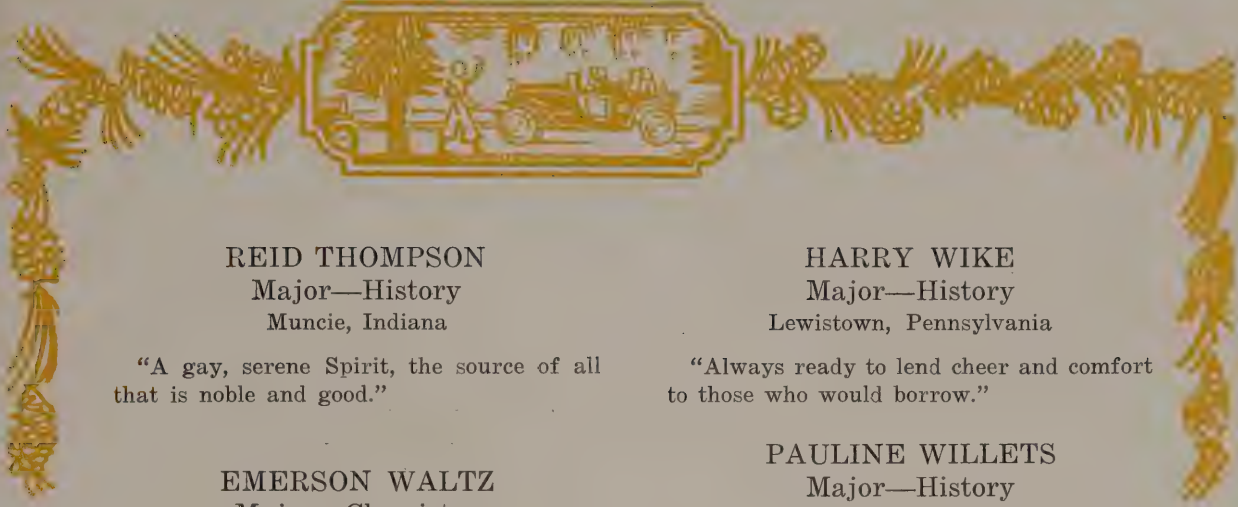

She admires the noble, sincere and genuine things in life and goes about her work with a determination to win.

FLOYD SHIERY
Major—Theology
Ashland, Ohio

"The fervent and diligent man is prepared for all things."

DARL STOFFER
Major—History
Homeworth, Ohio

Darl is a quiet, friendly boy whom everyone likes.

REID THOMPSON

Major—History
Muncie, Indiana

“A gay, serene Spirit, the source of all that is noble and good.”

EMERSON WALTZ

Major—Chemistry
Wadsworth, Ohio

Yours is the charm of calm, good sense.

GLEN WEIMER

Major—History
Ashland, Ohio

A fair example of a genuine worker, capable of doing great things.

SCOTT WHARTON

Major—Natural Science
Ashland, Ohio

“Silence is often more eloquent than words.”

HARRY WIKE

Major—History
Lewistown, Pennsylvania

“Always ready to lend cheer and comfort to those who would borrow.”

PAULINE WILLETS

Major—History
Ashland, Ohio

“Modesty is a citadel of beauty and virtue.”

BERNARD WORKMAN

Major—History
Danville, Ohio

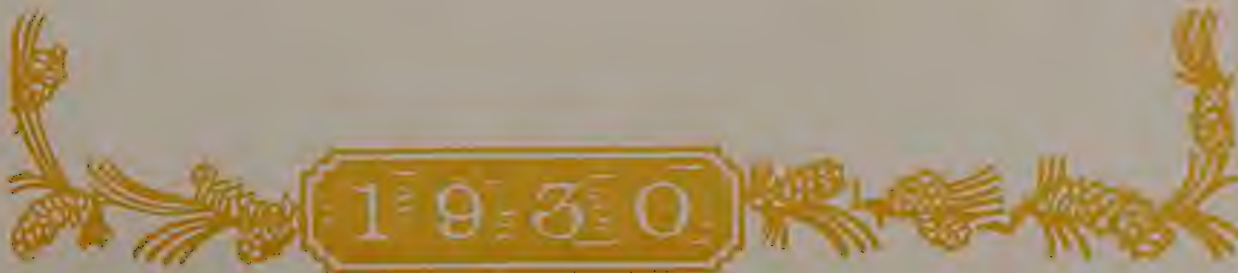

“I would be true, for there are those who trust me,

“I would be brave, for there is much to dare.”

MELVIN WORST

Major—Mathematics
Nankin, Ohio

“He doeth little kindnesses,
Which most leave undone, or despise.”

1930

Sophomores

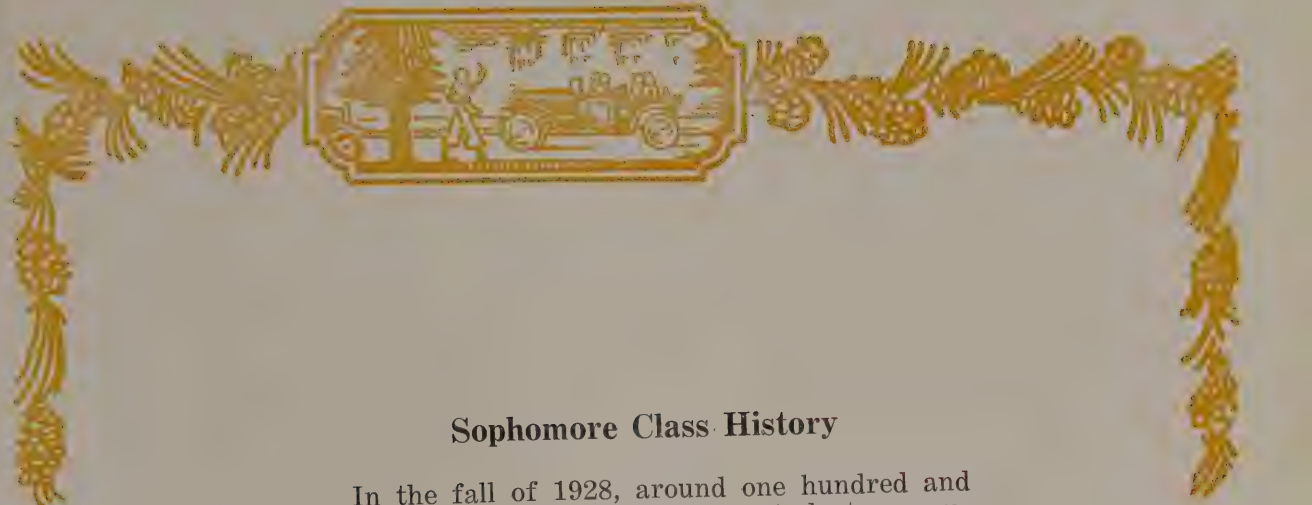

In Memoriam

Miss Grace Raby, prominent in college circles, died May 18, 1929. She was born in Loudonville, Ohio, July 8, 1910, and educated in the public schools. An honor pupil in high school, and church leader, she was elected to many prominent positions. Entering Ashland College in September, 1928, she planned to complete both the oratory and classical courses and would have received the degree of Bachelor of Oratory with the class of '30 and the Bachelor of Arts with the class of '32. Because of her ability and personality she was active in literary and dramatic circles. In her passing, Ashland lost an unusually talented student and loyal supporter.

"There is no death! The leaves may fall,
And flowers may fade and pass away;
They only wait, through wintry hours,
The coming of the May.

"And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life—there is no dead."

Sophomore Class History

In the fall of 1928, around one hundred and twenty-five confident, but green students assembled here at the Ashland College Campus to form the organization known as the Class of '32. They were not only from Ohio but came from several other states as well, namely, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Virginia and Iowa. After a month of awe filled days the present Juniors took pity on them and gave them a little party which was duly appreciated and practically made them, socially.

From then on things began to go and it was only a little while until they had chosen their leaders for the year of 1928-29. Much to their surprise they soon found out that the class possessed some real material and the following very capable officers were elected: Tom Hammers, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, president; Paul Johnson, Ashland, Ohio, vice-president, and Bernice Berkheiser, Mexico, Indiana, secretary and treasurer. The colors, scarlet and black, were also selected to represent the class on all occasions.

Upon returning to the campus in the fall of 1929 it was found that only sixty of the class remained and that the rest had turned to different occupations. Immediately the class politicians got together and elected another very fine set of officers, this time the personnel being: Douglas Price, Nappanee, Indiana, president; Paul Johnson, Ashland, Ohio, vice-president, and Candis Studebaker, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, secretary and treasurer.

Two outstanding things took the class spotlight for this year. The first was the inauguration of a Sophomore-Freshman day, in which the class of '32 came out victorious. The second was a huge Hallowe'en party, given in honor of the seniors, which proved to be a very thrilling affair.

Class Officers

President - Douglas Price

Vice-President Paul Johnson

Secretary-Treasurer
Candis Studebaker

PINE WHISPERS

Class Roll

Robert Ashman
Edith Bentz
Bernice Berkheiser
Warren Berlin
Ruby Bowman
James Boyer
Sam Boyer
Carl Coleman
Edward Campbell
Mary Crone
Kenneth Edmonson
Ellis Eidt
Donald Foley
Doris Frederick
Frank Fox
Leona Gehagen
Kenneth Gallatin
Mary Gardner
Harold Gingrich
Gillin Good
Ruth Grove
Thetus Hadden
Thomas Hammers
Donald Harwood
Theodore Henning
Pauline Heifner
Royd Hodge
Eugene Hostettler
Herman Hoyt
Charles Hyde

Paul Johnson
Betty Kagey
Harold Kiplinger
Richard Kopp
Lucinda Landrum
Cletus Long
Paul Lorah
Marshall McCuen
George McDonald
Ruth McDonald
Harold Martin
Mildred Miller
Dorothy Price
Douglas Price
Marshall Remy
Claretta Ross
Geraldine Ryan
Paul Simmons
Helen Smith
Kenneth Snyder
Candis Studebaker
Virginia Tieman
Benjamin Tilley
Harold Treace
Thomas Vanosdall
Norman Uphouse
Eugene Wiles
Howard Zimmerman

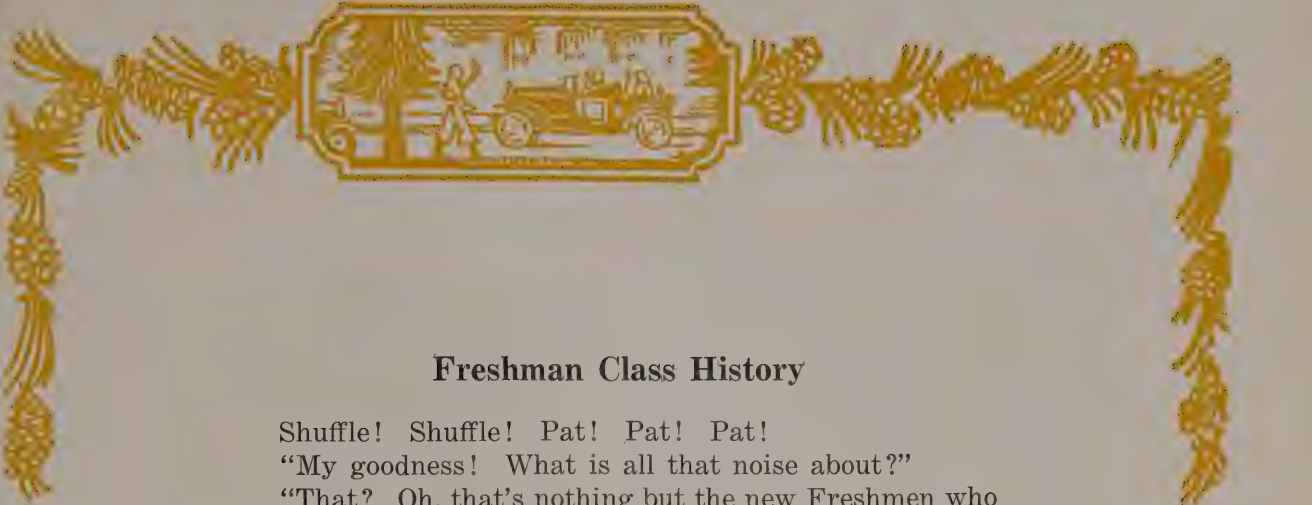

Class Officers

President Fred Vanosdall

Vice-President
Robert Clifford

Secretary-Treasurer
Gertrude Jesson

Freshman Class History

Shuffle! Shuffle! Pat! Pat! Pat!

"My goodness! What is all that noise about?"

"That? Oh, that's nothing but the new Freshmen who have floated in here, not to mention how. Can't they talk though?"

"Indeed they can, but they are also taking important places in the activities and the scholastic standards of Ashland College."

We had the first freshman football team who were worthy of having their own sweaters. Not only football, but every other sport in the college has been aided by the freshmen.

Along with athletics the freshmen have aided our school in debate, journalism, dramatics, band, glee clubs and our own freshman quartet which we hope will be competent enough to fill the places of the California quartet when they leave us. Along with the work of the year we have also had great fun in our two parties, the Junior-Frosh reception, and the first Soph-Frosh encounter on Field Day. We hope that this record so well begun, will continue through our days in college.

The spirit which we have found ingrained in the faculty and students, a spirit of helpfulness and friendly co-operation, at first astonished us. Now, as we think of it, it explains clearly to us the affection for the school that grows upon its students, year after year, as they go their ways through the maze of college life. In the sophomores we have found not deadly enemies whose principal function in life is to make life miserable for us, but rather, since tradition must have us in opposition, friendly enemies who have tried to make the going easier for us. In the juniors and seniors we have found men and women worthy to direct the activities of the school, whom we would be proud to hold as typical of the spirit and character of our Alma Mater.

We of '33 found a place waiting for us which we have endeavored to fill. We are grateful to all those who have helped us, we are happy in the life of our Alma Mater, and we are proud to speak of ourselves, with the upper-classmen, as Ashland students.

Class Roll

Mary Ashman
 Ross Awwiller
 Agnes Baker
 Adeline Becker
 Murray Beeghly
 Doris Bishop
 Janice Bowsher
 Wanda Boyar
 Frances Brown
 Margaret Brubaker
 Kathryn Brundage
 Helen Bush
 Russell Bryan
 Raymond Carl
 William Christian
 Robert Clifford
 Eva Clouse
 Mildred Cobbler
 Edna Crill

Wayne Darby Winona DeLong
 James Dowdy
 Mary Downend
 Gerald Emmons
 Earald Emerson
 Robert Enck
 Lester Fair
 Edwin Fensch
 Atlee Freshley
 Edmund Fulton
 Ord Gehman
 Mary George Emily Gibson
 Leland Girton
 Elizabeth Gladden
 Mollie Hall
 Edith Harmer
 Margaret Harnly

Robert Haynes
 Roger Helman
 Irene Herschler
 Naomi Hieber
 Turner Holt
 Mildred Hoyer
 Miriam Huddleston
 Leo Huston
 Edwin Jacobs
 Glenn Jacobs
 Gertrude Jesson
 Orville Kibler
 Betty Kinsel
 Herbert Kline
 Ann Kopical
 William Kopical
 William Krumlaw
 Willis Krumlaw
 Jane Kunicki

Class Roll

Clayton Kunkler
 James Kyler
 Cyril Lauder
 Florence Leiter
 Marjorie Lentz
 Elizabeth Lutz
 Marguerite Lutz
 Robert McCready
 Roy MacDonald
 Martha McIntosh
 Leland McPherson
 Ruth Markley
 Clayton Maus
 Ethel Merwin
 Edwin Morr
 Edward Mowrey
 Robert Nichols
 Earl Owens
 Richard Paxton
 Metta Phifer

Loraine Pimsner
 Jane Plank
 Robert Pollack
 James Potter
 Cleo Purdy
 Ferne Purdy
 Harold Read
 Greta Russell
 Marjorie Sandrock
 Mary Scarborough
 Donald Shipman
 DeLyle Siegman
 Gertrude Smith
 Ruth Snyder
 Walter Snyder
 Mabel Spayde
 Loumintha Stottsberry
 Gertrude Strock
 Delpha Stuckey
 Stella Stull

John Tinkey
 Josephine Toth
 Ione Uhl
 Bernice Vanasdal
 Ella Vanderziel
 Fred Vanosdall
 Ruth VanScoy
 Walter Wagner
 Vallie Welch
 Charles Wicks
 Russell Williams
 Althea Wilson
 Betty Workman
 Wayne Workman Herbert Wycoff
 Lawrence Yarman
 Vera Yohn
 Floyd Young
 Carl Zimmerman

1930 Organizations

Literary

Scribes' Literary Society

Sitting (left to right)—Ralph Richards,
Tyrol Noble, Cassel Jacobs, Herman Hoyt,
Ellis Eidt.

Standing—Paul Lorah, Glenn Weimer, Allen Scholl, Cecil Towslee, Floyd Shiery, Noel Shaffer.

Scribes' Literary Society

Founded in 1921 with eight charter members, Scribes Literary Society remains the only honorary organization on the campus. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership and tolerance.

Meetings of the organization are held monthly and one yearly open meeting. At these meetings two papers are read and discussed.

Active members are: Delbert Flora, Cassel Jacobs, Tyrol Noble, Floyd Shiery, Noel Shaffer, Herman Hoyt, Cecil Towslee, Paul Lorah, Ralph Richards, Ellis Eidt, Glenn Weimer, Walter Snyder.

Honorary Members

Charles Anspach, John Howard Gongwer, John Perry Horlacher, Walter Leckrone, Archie Lynn, Florizel Pfeiderer, Milton P. Puterbaugh, Elwood Rowsey, Melvin A. Stuckey, Russell D. Barnard, John Weldon Hoot, Charles Mayes, George Walton, George K. Stone, Tonio Toba, Arthur P. Petit, Homer A. Kent, John Funk Locke, Landis R. Bradfield, Carson Jones, Clayton Starn, George Pontius, Dwight Williams, Donald Bame, John Miller, Herman Koontz, Harold McAdoo, Merle Hiner, Shelly Garber, Allan Weber, Egydio Romanenghi, Floyd Taber, Arthur Cashman, Franklin Black, John Warnes, Leslie Lindower, Nathan Elliot, Edwin Lerch, Anthony Peters, Sanford Essig, Ernest Miller, George Guiley, Ralph Horn, Frank Gehman, Merle Flamm, Raymond Gingrich, Ray Ballou, Maurice Stahl, Lawrence Mann, Paul Bauman, Charles Whitman.

The Collegian Staff

Standing (left to right)—W. Sherwood Gutshall, Robert Ashman, Cassel Jacobs, Warren Berlin, Floyd Shiery, Paul Lorah.

Seated: Noel Shaffer (Managing Editor), Elizabeth Black, Tyrol Noble, (Editor-in-chief), Opal Rupert, Herman Hoyt.

THE ASHLAND COLLEGIAN

"The Collegian" is published thirty times a year by a business and editorial staff composed of students that are interested in newspaper work, assisted by various members of the organization. The Collegian furnishes the students with news articles concerning all campus events and organizations, included are sports, parties, debates, meetings of organizations, dormitory news, alumni news, humorous writings, and many other things which are of great interest to the Ashland College student.

1930

PINE WHISPERS

STAFF

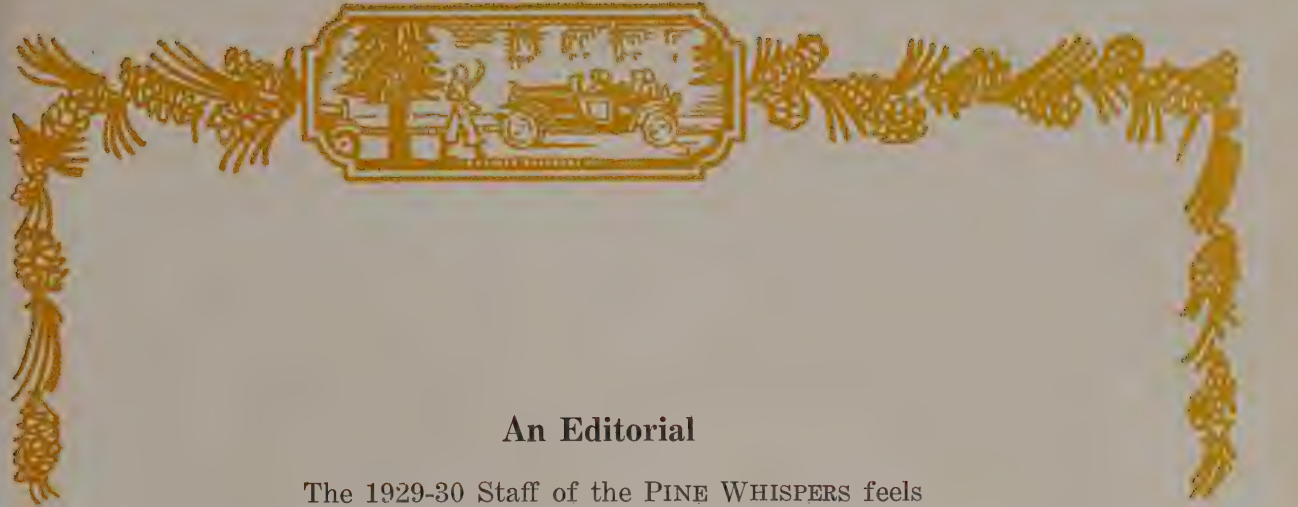

W. SHERWOOD GUTSHALL
EDITOR

HOWARD A. EMMONS
BUSINESS MANAGER

APPRECIATION TO OUR CONTRIBUTORS

The Staff wishes to announce its appreciation to the following contributors to the 1930 PINE WHISPERS OF PROGRESS. We regret that our appreciation can be only in the form of recognition.

- | | |
|-----------------|------------------|
| Robert Ashman | Elizabeth Black |
| Cassel Jacobs | Christine Witter |
| Helen Smilie | Mary Bittinger |
| Gertrude Jesson | Tyrol Noble |
| Donald Carter | Noel Shaffer |
| Metta Phifer | Warren Berlin |
| Wanda Boyer | Russell Brown |
| Fred Hare, Jr. | Conard Sandy |
| Robert Kopp | Dorothy Whitted |

An Editorial

The 1929-30 Staff of the PINE WHISPERS feels elated over the fact that it was able to reopen the glowing pages of history of Ashland College and briefly trace the institution's growth and expansion in the fifty-two year period. It is rightly an honor which no other Annual Staff had bestowed unto them which they could fully appreciate.

With the presentation of this book of the highlights of the college's history, the Annual takes this opportunity of taking a peep into the future of the Purple school and making predictions of the college several years from now and just what is needed to accomplish this aim.

As is widely known, the college is greatly in want of a chapel building, the present room in the Founders' Hall being very small in comparison to the number of students in attendance. Other vastly important needs are: Men's dormitory, new girls' dormitory, at least two structures for recitation purposes, and an athletic stadium.

Ashland is bound to grow and prosper; advancements such as entrance into the Ohio Conference and Northwestern Association of Colleges just this year are two of the greatest steps towards the goal as one of the outstanding higher educational institutions in the state and country.

Upon the completion of this book, the publication staff, in behalf of the student body, wishes to congratulate the College for its remarkable progress in the past and give their hearty hopes for a rosy future.

Debaters

Bottom row (left to right)—Herman Hoyt, Clayton Maust, Ord Gehman, Robert Ashman.

Top row—Tyrol Noble, Russell Williams, DeForest Lewis, Floyd Shiery.

Debaters

Most of the men who answered the call for debaters this year were men who had not had experience. Floyd Shiery, Herman Hoyt and Tyrol Noble were the only men left from last year. Some of the new men came through well and helped make the year in debate a successful one.

The season opened with discussions of the question, "Resolved, That the present extent of modern advertising is deplorable." Shiery, Noble and Glen Weimer upheld the affirmative with Hoyt serving as alternate. Hoyt, Weimer and Noble with Ord Gehman, a freshman, serving as alternate took the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That the United States without waiting for international agreement should adopt a policy of leading to complete disarmament, except for those forces necessary for police protection." In later debates the words "all nations" were substituted for "the United States." Clayton Maus served as alternate with the same men carrying the burden of debate. The latter was the only question on which there was a negative team. It was composed of Hoyt, Shiery, Gehman and Russell Williams.

Manchester College was the only out-of-state team that was met during the season.

Noble is the only man who is lost by graduation this year. The prospects are good for better teams next year. Freshmen showed unusual interest throughout the season.

All the coaching was under the direction of the veteran, Dr. L. L. Garber.

Sociological Club

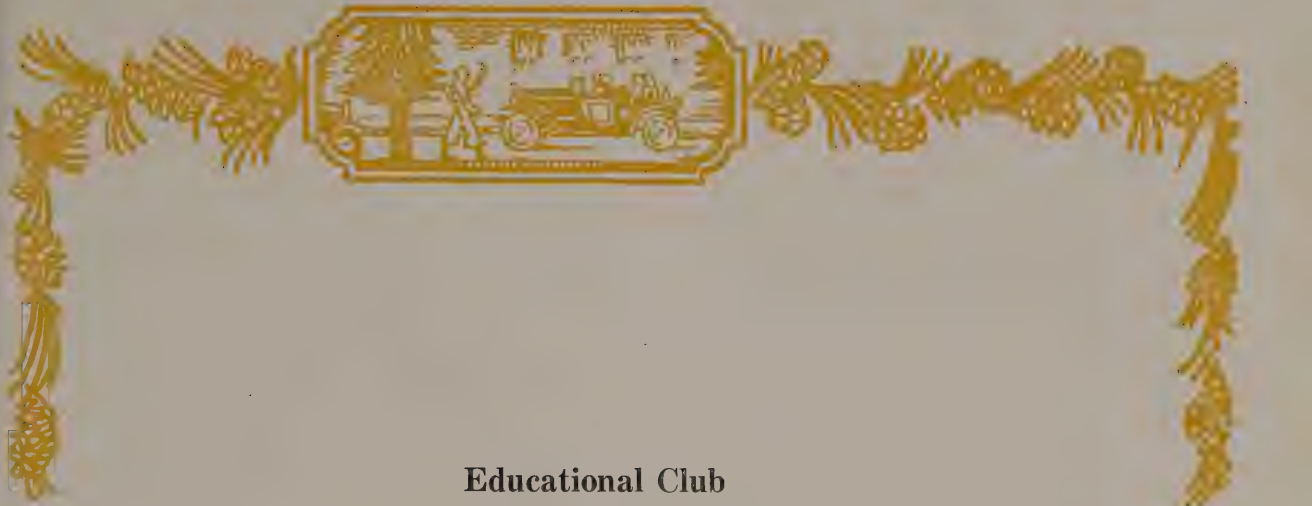

At the beginning of the fall term of the year under the tutelage of Dr. Morris J. Caldwell, head of the department of economics and sociology of Ashland College, the Sociological Club was organized. Because of widespread interest in the social science, need for such an institution making for progress and socialization, was in order.

Meetings, held the first Thursday of every month, are preceded by a dinner. Every meeting has its speaker who is one competent to discuss subjects vital to the club's interest. Perhaps the first year of the club's existence has been rather unimportant from the standpoint of social activity but with another year more will materialize.

The enrollment of the club slightly exceeds forty, including as honorary members, President Jacobs, Dr. Ullman, Dr. Anspach, Dr. Bixler and Dr. Caldwell. The student members are those who have or are in the act of taking at least two courses in the economic and sociological department.

With the continued amount of enthusiasm which has marked the first year of its life, the Sociological Club will be one of the essentials of Ashland College.

Educational Club

A new organization was started upon the campus this year under the able direction of Doctors Anspach and Ullman, called the Educational Club.

The first meeting was called in midwinter at which time Doctor Ullman outlined the purpose of the organization and gave a talk on correct letters of application for positions. Mrs. Leslie and Miss Beall also gave talks upon subjects of direct interest to beginning teachers.

At the second meeting officers were elected. Noel Shaffer was elected President, Margaret Bolles was elected Vice-President and Elizabeth Junk was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

During the months which have succeeded these early meetings they have secured many prominent men to speak to them. Among those who have talked are the following: Mr. Maffet, Superintendent of the Ashland County schools, Judge C. C. Chapman, Honorable J. Freer Bittinger. One of the high spots of this year was the banquet held in February at which time Mr. Ira M. Smith, Registrar of the University of Michigan was the chief speaker.

Much good was accomplished this year and many things of great value were learned. Great things are being looked forward to from this organization in the coming years.

PINE WHISPERS

Seminary

Front row (left to right)—Ruth Grove, Mrs. Hattie Sheldon, Mabel Crawford, Lucinda Landrum, Ruby Bauman, Mary Ashman, Thetus Hatten, Mrs. Floyd Shiery, Lenora Deisch.

Middle row—Tom Hammers, Benjamin Tilly, Norman Uphouse, Ord Gehman, Conard Sandy, Cyril Lander, Walter Wagner, Floyd Shiery, Everett Niswonger, Paul Dowdy, Herman Hoyt.

Top row—Willard Boyer, Paul Lorah, Paul Davis, Robert Clifford, George McDonald, Donald Carter, Orville Lorenz, Ernest Pine, Ray Klingensmith, Robert Ashman.

Seminary

Ashland's Seminary has in the past sent out very capable men and women into active Christian work, and this year is no exception. There are some graduates who will go out into this work in this country, and still others will go to France for further study and thence to the jungles of Africa.

This year's attendance is about the same as that of last year—about a half hundred. They come from the Pacific Coast, from the Atlantic Coast, and from various points between. There are not as many as there are in larger seminaries, but their devotion to the cause of Christ and their determination to carry the Gospel Message to the others cannot be rivaled.

There is plenty of work for these people along the line of their preparation. Some of the men have regular student pastorates and others answer calls to fill vacant pulpits. And still there are some who help with the work at the mission here in Ashland, and some have an active part in the Brethren Sunday school at the church on Park Street. All support the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. and the Gospel Team organizations.

The curriculum is different from that of past years. There are two courses offered. The four year course with two years of college and two of seminary, and the six year course with three years of college and three years of seminary.

The men who make up the faculty are men of earnest convictions, vitally interested in training young people to win others from darkness to light. Any student entering the Seminary cannot help but be impressed with the sincerity of these men. Cooperation with them should prepare any one who is called to Christian service to enter upon a life activity for the Master. Those who think seriously of attempting such work are certain to be met with a cordial invitation to enroll under the tutelage of these earnest instructors, who will do their utmost in lending assistance toward proper training.

Girls' Gospel Team

Seated (left to right)—Margaret Bolles, Geraldine Moxley, Fern Monroe, Christine Witter, Bernice Berkeiser, Betty Glover, Mary Ashman, Candis Studebaker.

Standing—Dorothy Whitted, Ruth Grove, Elizabeth Smith, Oma Hawbecker, Elizabeth Ringle, Lorain Pimsner, Helen Lewis, Marjorie Sandrock.

When we pause for a moment of meditation there comes to our minds the happy hours spent in the Girls' Gospel Team work. The spiritual side of life is often sadly neglected with the rush of daily duties. In this age of the world's history some say young folks do not think about God for many various reasons. We are delighted to say that this is not true on the Ashland campus.

There are some very devout Christian young girls who are not ashamed to hold high the banner of Jesus Christ. For many years this organization has been very active. The group is composed of twenty members whose ideals are very high and who encourage Christian service, foster Christian ideals throughout the school, and attempt to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ among the communities in which they are called to serve.

A team is composed of four or five members. They take complete charge of the service in cooperation with the pastor. Regular meetings are held every other Monday night and a character study of the disciples of Jesus which have been helpful and inspiring has proved very successful. Recognition of the work done is shown by the awarding of letters and certificates.

Men's Gospel Team

Seated (left to right)—Robert Ashman, Delbert Flora, Conard Sandy, Paul Lorah, Cletus Long, Willard Boyer, Orville Lorenz, Herman Hoyt, Ernest Pine.

Standing—Tom Hammers, James Kyler, Benjamin Tilly, Everett Niswonger, Ord Gehman, George McDonald, Gillin Good, Norman Uphouse, Floyd Shiery.

The object of the organization is: (1) To prepare men to preach and teach "the Bible, the whole Bible, and nothing but the Bible." (2) To cultivate the devotional life and evangelistic emphasis. (3) To present ourselves "approved unto God, workmen that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." It has tried to the best of its knowledge and according to God's leading to carry out this object, developing the spiritual life of each individual who enters wholeheartedly into the work with a life that is dedicated to definite service for his Savior, Lord and Master.

On invitations from churches within traveling distances from Ashland teams have gone forth for meetings during vacations and weekends. Notable among these trips was a week's evangelistic effort at Polk, Ohio, and another of same duration at Lost Creek and Krypton, Kentucky.

During the year the organization has been an instrument in the hands of God in adding souls unto his kingdom, which gives encouragement to every member. In addition to the visible results there is no way to measure what other good may have been done. Each member thinks of the words of Solomon when he said, "He that winneth souls is wise."

1930

Y. W. C. A.

Seated (left to right)—Dorothy Price, Mrs. Floyd Shiery, Margaret Bolles, Lucetta Hibbs, Louise Kimmel, Leona Gehagen.

Standing—Bernice Berkheiser, Christine Witter, Elizabeth Ringle, Elizabeth Black, Fern Monroe, Dorothy Whitted.

One of the most active and well known organizations on the campus is the Y. W. C. A. While the organization is not so large yet it is mighty.

The Y. W. consists of a group of "peppy" girls who are interested not only in themselves, but others. The purpose and aim of our Y. W is "Not I—but others."

In the fall of the year a "Big and Little Sister" party is fostered in honor of the new girls. Each new girl is given an upper classman as her big sister, who cares for her throughout the girl's school year, aiding her with her problems. After the Big and Little Sister party, the next big event is a tea given by the Cabinet members for the new girls, in order to get them interested in the Y. W. C. A.

During the year we meet every week in our Y. W. room. Our programs are varied, some musical, some discussional, but mostly addresses by the professors and other noted speakers from the town.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas we had the joy of bringing happiness into six homes, by supplying them with food and clothing, thus bringing the organization into closer contact with the social problems of our town and giving us a wider outlook in social service work.

Our Y. W. C. A. has a dream and that dream is the erecting of a new Chapel. While we feel that we shall never be able to put up the entire building, still we do feel as though the amount that we do have shall be an inspiration to someone in aiding us in the realization of our dream.

Y. M. C. A.

Seated (left to right)—Robert Ashman, Harold Martin, Noel Shaffer, Harry Wike, Floyd Shiery, Ray Klingensmith.

Standing—James Kyler, Ernest Pine, Ralph Thauvette, Gillin Good, Conard Sandy.

A review of the records of the Y. M. C. A. indicates that the organization has experienced a very successful year under the able leadership of the president, Mr. Harry Reuben Wike. The work of the Y. M. on the campus equals that of any other organization. From the first meeting to the last the programs have been instructive, entertaining and varied.

The first big event of the year was the joint Y. W.—Y. M. hike. Through this association the acquaintances of the students were widened and some deepened. Many embraced their opportunity.

Each meeting was opened with an inspiring song service, followed by devotions. On a number of occasions the whole meeting was given over to singing and other forms of musical entertainment.

The Alumni-Varsity basketball game, sponsored by the Y. M., provided the necessary finances for the various activities of the organization during the year.

Refreshments were served to both teams the night of the Ashland-Slippery Rock basketball game. Many expressions of appreciation were received from both teams.

We wish to thank Mrs. E. L. Kilhefner for her interest in the Y. M. through the gift of a goodly number of "Men's Chorus Books." A marked increase in musical interest has been shown since using these books.

It was only through the cooperation of the entire organization that these things were made possible and we hope that the coming year will be a greater and more successful one in the history of the Y. M. C. A. on Ashland College Campus.

1930

Musical

Girls' Glee Club

Bottom row (left to right)—Pauline Heifner, Irene Herschler, Dorothy Van Dyke, Ethel Carl, Kathryn Bell, Margaret Bolles, Eva Clouse, Bernice Vanosdall.

Middle row—Eleanor Stevens, Metta Phifer, Virginia Tieman, Kathryn Brundage, Miss Norma Hurdle (directress), Lorena Lewis, Vera Lindower, Elizabeth Beal, Rosalyn Barry.

Top row—Candis Studebaker, Dorothy Oberholtzer, Marjorie Sandrock, Mary Ashman, Gertrude Jesson, Christine Witter, Geraldine Moxley, Claretta Ross, Mildred Miller.

Girls' Glee Club

Twenty-five girls composed the Girls' Glee Club this year. Under the direction of Miss Norma Hurdle, head of the Voice Department, the club learned groups of secular and sacred numbers. Three of the most outstanding numbers were "Let Us Rejoice, All Ye Faithful," by Groun, "Ave Maria," by Schubert, and "Greetings to Spring," arranged to the tune of "Blue Danube Waltz," by Strauss.

Last fall the club sang from station WJW at Mansfield. After preliminary concerts at Ruggles and Nankin the club with Miss Thelma Slack, reader, and the club manager, Professor R. R. Haun, left Ashland April 4 in a large bus for a six day concert tour to Brethren churches in Dayton and the Miami Valley.

Large crowds greeted the girls in their concerts at the Gretna church near Bellefontaine, New Lebanon, Dayton, Clayton, West Alexandria and Pleasant Hill. Short programs were given at six high schools. At Dayton the club sang from station WSMK during the morning religious hour.

Miss Christine Witter of Philadelphia was president and Miss Geraldine Moxley of Brunswick was secretary and treasurer of the club.

Men's Glee Club

First row (left to right)—Tom Hammers, Paul Lorah, Robert Kopp, Harold Martin, Cletus Long, Richard Kopp.

Second row—Ernest Pine, Robert McKinley, Eugene Wiles, Edwin Jacobs, Jr., Reid Thompson, Atlee Freshley.

Top row—Garland Christian, Ralph Thauvette, DeForest Lewis, Murray Beeghley, George MacDonald, Warren Berlin, Raymond Novotny.

Men's Glee Club

The Men's Glee Club of 1929-30 was organized under the direction of Miss Norma Hurdle who has very ably taken it through another successful season. The club, during the second semester, made two very successful trips. The first was a weekend trip to cities and towns in Ohio, east of Ashland. The second trip was of more length. They traveled west through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, giving about twelve concerts to well filled houses, making a hit at each place where they stopped. The club also gave several concerts in the small towns surrounding Ashland as well as giving a home concert to a well filled house and an appreciative audience.

The officers of the club are as follows: President, Ray Novotny; Vice-President, Robert Kopp; Secretary-Treasurer, Hank Thauvette; Faculty Advisor, Professor Haun.

The College Band

First row (left to right)—Allen Scholl, Warren Berlin, Dorothy Whitted, Mary Ann Scarbaugh, Robert Topper, Garland Christian, Dorothy Price, Roger Helman, Dud Price, Reid Thompson (director).

Second row—Dr. E. E. Jacobs, Evelyn Garber, Dorothy VanDyke, Francis Sprang, Earld Emerson, Mary Gardner, Harold Zimmerman.

Top row—Geraldine Ryan, Edwin Jacobs, Jr., Tom Vanosdall, Fred Vanosdall, Eugene Wiles, Atlee Freshley.

The College Band under its second year of leadership of Reid Thompson, started the season with a roar. Shortly after the 1929-30 season started the band played for the Ashland County Fair. There it received much favorable comment. By the middle of the first semester the uniform was improved upon by the adding of leggings.

Every football and basketball game sees the band ready to go when the whistle blows. Then, too, it plays for other events such as chapel services, the minstrel shows, hallowe'en parades, and this year "Prexy's Pride" had the honor of escorting the President of Greater Ashland College in a triumphal march from the train to the campus on the morning that he returned, the president of an accredited school.

The letters were changed slightly this year in that they lacked the purple edge on the "A" and the trumpet in the bar is purple instead of gold. Requirements for earning a letter were also made higher. Only four excused and no unexcused cuts were permitted this year to be eligible for a letter or credit. This stimulated much interest within the organization. Twenty of the thirty-two enrolled during the year earned letters. Great things are expected of the band in the future.

The California Quartette

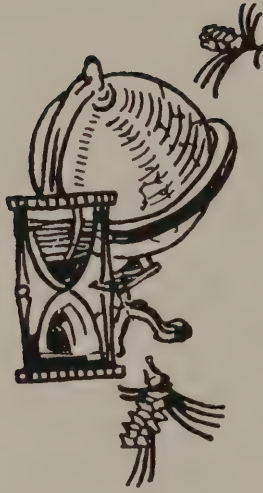

Left to right—Donald Carter, Ernest Pine, Robert Ashman, Ray Klingensmith

Outstanding among the musical clubs on the Ashland College Campus is that of the California Quartette. Although there is one Pennsylvanian in the group, Robert Ashman, due to the loss of the former member, Paul Bauman, the quartette is gaining wide prominence not only in the city, but in the county and state.

At nearly every college function the quartette is requested to render numbers in its impressive style. On the Men's Glee Club trip into western states, the quartette offered several selections which were favorably received by the large audiences to which they sang.

The quartette will not be broken up on account of graduation of its members or some other reason next year. Three of the group, Ernest Pine, Raymond Klingensmith and Donald Carter are juniors, while Ashman is a sophomore.

State Clubs

The Keystone Club

Bottom row (left to right)—James Kyler, Tom Hammers, Benjamin Tilly, Norman Uphouse, Eugene Hostettler.

Second row—W. Sherwood Gutshall, Robert Ashman, Candis Studebaker, Christine Witter, Lucetta Hibbs, Mary Ashman, Ruth Grove, Edmund Fulton, Fred Hare.

Top row—Prof. A. L. DeLozier, Ward Pfeiffer, George McDonald, Harry Wike, Harold Gingrich, Cyril Lauder, Walter Wagner.

When the Pennsylvania Club was first organized—more than five years ago—it was composed of only a small representation from the Keystone State. Since that time, it has grown and its upward stride has been particularly noticeable in the many activities on the campus. No state in the Union, other than Ohio, is sending as many students to Ashland College as is Pennsylvania.

Ohio's neighboring state is represented by twenty-five students this term. It is the largest in the history of the institution. Although the body is not organized this year, members of the group are outstanding figures on the campus.

The Hoosier Club

Front row (left to right)—Dr. J. A. Miller, Dorothy Price, Dorothy Oberholtzer, Miss Lula Woods, Frances Black, Bernice Berkheiser.

Top row—Dud Price, Paul Davis, Warren Berlin, Clayton Maust, Prof. L. L. Black, Ord Gehman, Reid Thompson, Cletus Long.

*Back home again in Indiana,
And it seems that I can see,
The gleaming candle light,
Still shining bright,
Through the sycamores for me.
The new mown hay sends all its fragrance
From the fields I used to roam.
When I dream about the moonlight on the Wabash
Then I long for my Indiana home.*

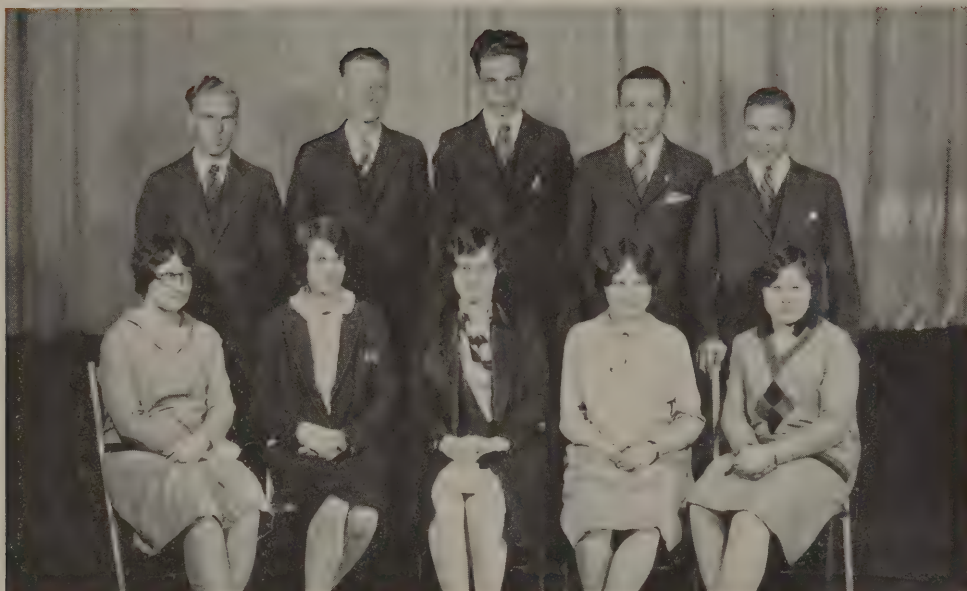

To the heart of every "true blue" Hoosier these words are very dear and his heart swells with pride when he hears them.

Some folks say this club is useless, but we feel that without the group from Indiana something would be lacking on our college campus.

We boast a band leader as well as active members in the band; also, enthusiastic workers in every organization on the campus, such as Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., dramatics and Gospel teams. Too, we are proud of our several faculty members who are not at all timid or bashful in boosting the Hoosier State.

1930

Golden Bear Club

Front row (left to right)—Mabel Crawford, Fern Monroe, Thetus Hadden, Lucinda Landrum, Ruby Bowman.

Top row—Ernest Pine, Prof. Kenneth Monroe, Donald Carter, Orville Lorenz, Ray Klingensmith.

This club is made up of those whose homes are in California or who have lived there for a period of time. As the members are far from home, the club is mostly for social purposes. Long Lake is the haven of retreat and the "California Bunch," as they are called, have tried to make themselves at home there.

At these parties all assumed dignity is set aside and it is not surprising to see some callow underclassman splashing the dignified Doctor Kenneth Monroe with water while boating. At these gatherings, after a hearty meal of scorched steak, marshmallows, etc., there is usually a devotional period during which all draw closer to God in the spirit of the occasion.

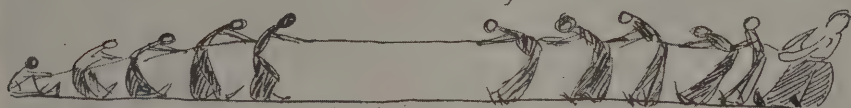

PASSING SHOW OF 1930

YM-YW Hike

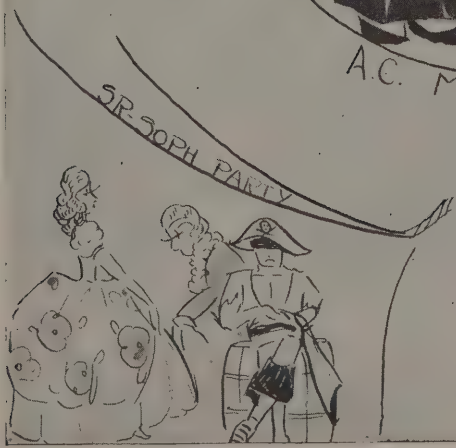

Night Football

Fresh-Soph Day Inaugurated

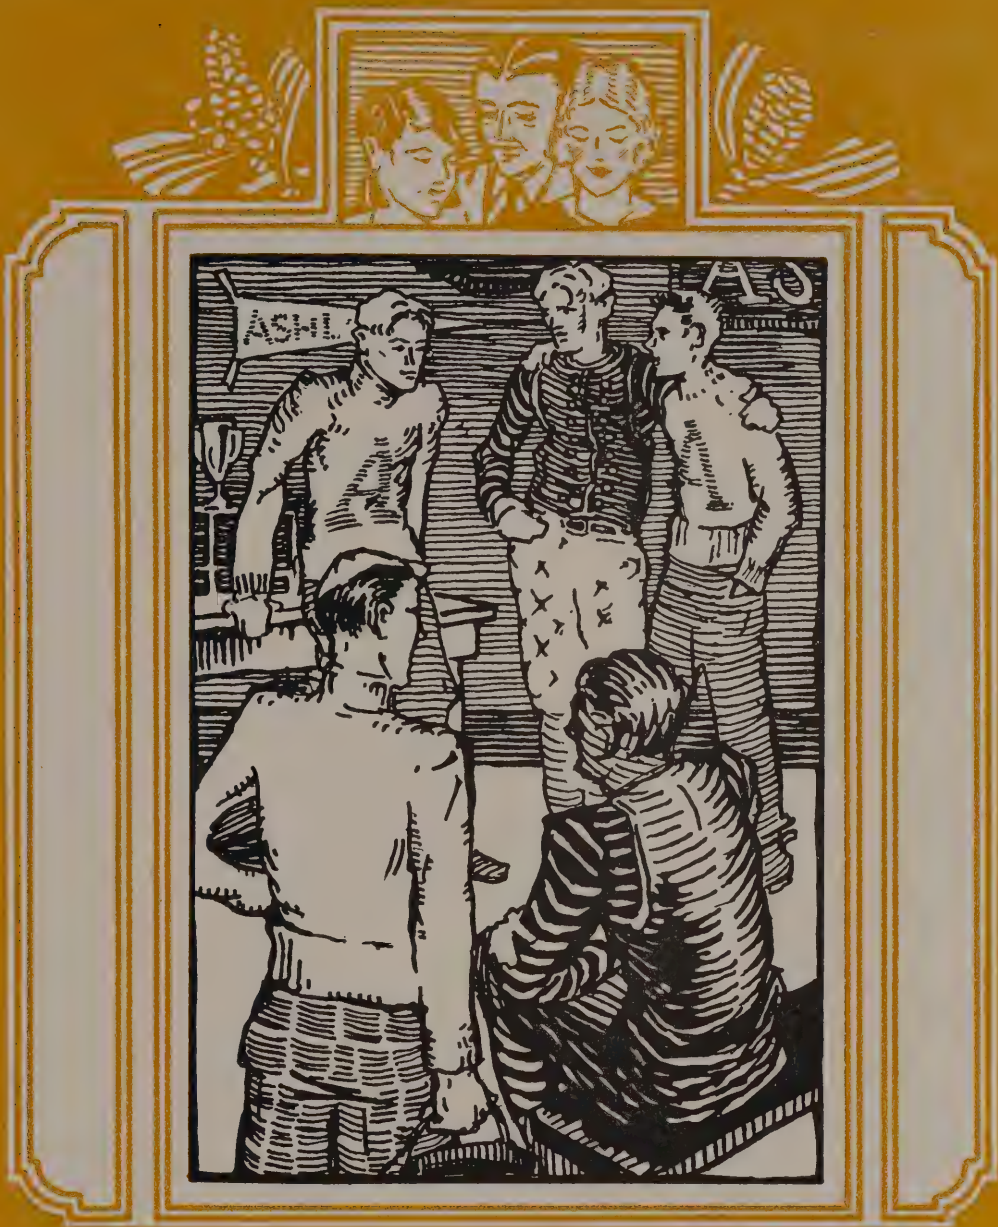

A.C. MINSTREL

May Day

1930

Athletics

Varsity Squad

Front row (left to right)—Marshall McCuen, Edward Campbell, Paul Watson, Bernard Workman, Frank Lomero, Donald Baker, Raymond Novotny, Edward Erb, Carl Kolp, Edward Warstler, Delbert Caton.

Second row—Fred Schmuck (coach), Carl Coleman, Samuel Boyer, Donald Edmonson, Bernard Finley, Robert Riley, Harold Kiplinger, Kenneth Stoufer, Royd Hodge, Donald Harwood, Noel Shaffer (manager).

Top row—Frank Fox, Theodore Henning, Eugene Hostettler, George Donges, Fred Hare, Ward Pfeiffer, Theodore Dybo, Harold Treace, Kenneth Gallatin, Paul Johnson.

Varsity Squad

Football enjoyed one of its greatest seasons this year for Ashland College. Besides placing two men on the All-Ohio selection, the Purple compiled scores that bid fair to place them as one of the highest scoring machines in the state. Playing stellar football throughout the year against teams rated many times stronger, they came to the consummation of the year's efforts with seven games won and one lost. Although having an unusually light team this year they were coached into a system of play and imbued with a spirit that would not admit defeat.

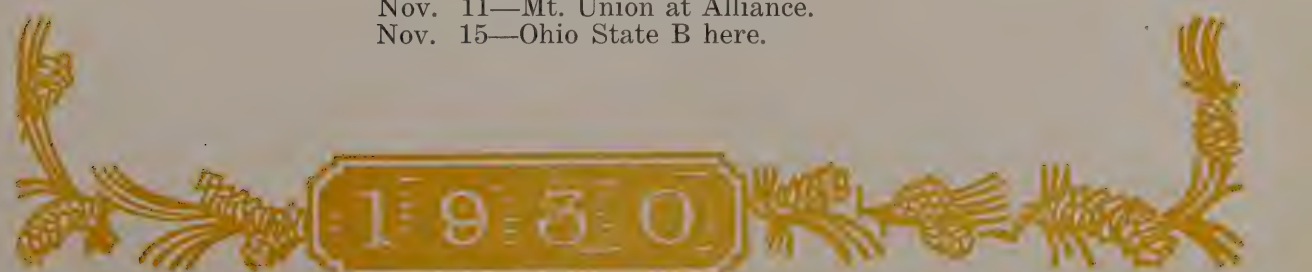

Spectacular plays overruled the season, the team scoring on the first play of the game on three different occasions, and in the last forty-five seconds of play against Wilmington College scoring a touchdown to win the game. Due to a light, speedy backfield and line they excelled in the aerial offensive and propagated an attack that would keep any team guessing and on their toes to solve. Although losing seven veteran lettermen this year the coach will have at his beck and call next year a wealth of material to choose from and we can be assured of another great year in sports for our Alma Mater.

THE RESULTS

Ashland	31	Defiance	7
Ashland	0	W. & J.	60
Ashland	36	Slippery Rock	7
Ashland	20	Wilmington	18
Ashland	43	Cedarville	0
Ashland	31	Thiel	7
Ashland	53	Findlay	7
Ashland	58	Adrian	7
272		113

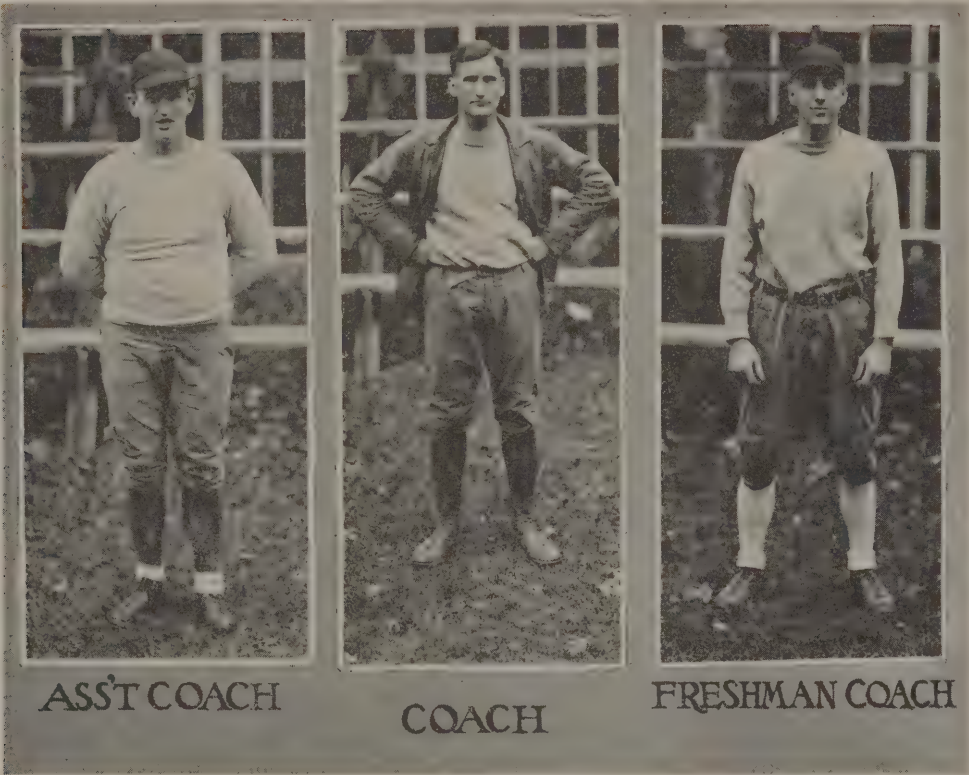

1930 Schedule

Sept. 26—Kalamazoo here (night).
Oct. 4—Wooster at Wooster.
Oct. 10—Kenyon here (night).
Oct. 17—Marietta at Marietta.
Oct. 25—Kent at Kent.
Nov. 1—Miami at Oxford.
Nov. 8—Otterbein here.
Nov. 11—Mt. Union at Alliance.
Nov. 15—Ohio State B here.

1930

The Coaching Staff

Ashland College possesses a very competent coaching staff this year in the persons of Fred Schmuck, Herb Slough and Ralph Thauvette. Coach Schmuck has coached Ashland teams for the past three years and has proven to be one of the best coaches in the state, taking small teams and pitting them against rivals of many times their size both in drawing numbers and physically and coming out with wins. He stands for clean sportsmanship and fair play and has the confidence of all the boys he works with. The college is indeed fortunate in having a man of Schmuck's calibre.

Herb Slough, letterman from Ohio State acted in the capacity of assistant coach and worked mainly with the linemen. The results of his work could be very easily seen in the superior play of the forward wall. The boys think very highly of Herb's work and we hope that he is with us next year.

With the formation of a Freshman squad it was necessary to have a coach in charge of this work and so Head Coach Schmuck selected Hank Thauvette, senior in the Science Department, and a lad well versed in athletics to undertake this work. He performed his task very creditably and turned out a squad any man could be proud of. Hank graduates this spring and needless to say we are sorry to see him depart.

RAY NOVOTNY

Backfield

Ashland College sorrows and rejoices with this young man, the first All-Ohio player to graduate from the institution. This lad is the ideal football player, fine disposition, clean player, hard worker, and a fighter to the end. High scorer of the State this year and third high in the United States, he leaves a record that will stand for many years.

CAPTAIN DONALD BAKER

Center

"Dutch" held down the pivot position on the team and is acknowledged the best center to ever play for our school. He received All-Ohio mention on the second team and played a starring game throughout the year, reaching the heights against his old Alma Mater, W. & J., where he proceeded to demonstrate a few of the finer points of the game to the All-American, Jap Dowds. "Dutch" captained our team in 1929 and will be eligible for one more year of collegiate football.

EDWARD ERB

End

This lanky Buckeye boy hails from Cleveland and graduates from college this spring after setting a record that equals that of any athlete ever attending the school and will doubtless be the last of his kind now that we have entered the conference. "Morvich" earned twelve letters in four years' competition in school and proved to be a natural born athlete.

MARSHALL W. MCCUEN

Backfield

A great favorite of all the fans and always inserting into the game that fire and dash that aided so materially in making "Mac" the great fullback that he is. We can sit back with a sigh and readily understand why Coach Barnhart thought so much of this boy in high school. With three years of varsity competition and one more season to go we can expect a veteran of the game next year.

1930

THEODORE "TED" HENNING Tackle

A giant in stature and the largest man on the squad played a tackle post with vim and delighted in tearing through and smashing things up whenever that playful mood struck him. Hailing from Canton McKinley High School and still holding a few happy memories in the way of cupid intoxication there, we predict for this player two more great years of competition in Ashland College sports.

FRED HARE, JR. Guard

A classy guard and commonly known as Dr. Jacobs' "All-Ohio Tackle," Frederick P. Hare, Jr., answering to the name of "Casey" on the campus, played the first part of the season on the Varsity line. Injury to his knee towards the middle of the schedule laid him out for the rest of his collegiate athletic career. Casey will be remembered in that memorable victory over Wooster in September, 1928. A player one cannot forget is the most one can say of Hare.

Captain-elect JOHN W. PFEIFFER Tackle

Pfeiffer hails from the Allegheny mountains of Pennsylvania, plays a tackle position like the veteran he is and displays a great deal of the fight it takes to be a real football player. He has been elected by the letter men to lead the Purple and Gold team next season through what will doubtless prove to be one of the hardest schedules the college has ever played.

ROBERT RILEY Backfield

Safety man and quarterback and holding probably the most precarious position on the team this boy came through on every occasion, upsetting many a team's equilibrium and piloting the boys through a rough and ready schedule with a brilliance never exceeded in the school's history. An ideal ball handler and a great leader are good epitaphs for Bob. He has one more season of competition for the school.

KENNETH STOUFER

Guard

Steady, dependable and always fighting though, with never a thought of personal glory and always ready to sacrifice for the good of the school, entails a good description of "Fatso", a guard of superior ability, able to take it on the chin and come up smiling for more, proved this lad's capabilities and leads us to predict him a great closing season next year.

EDWARD WARSTLER

End

Big Ed played his fourth and last year of college football this year and is recognized as one of the best ends in the State. At the end of the first semester he dropped school to enter the professional baseball field as the property of the Cleveland Indians. About the same time he decided to enter the bonds of matrimony and so with the aid of his college day sweetheart we now find him on the path that leads to fame and fortune.

GEORGE H. DONGES

Guard

One of the original flying freshmen remodeled from a halfback into a classy, fast guard, he displayed his versatility in his ready acclimation to his new post. He graduated at the mid-semester as a four year letter man in football, a clean player and a credit to the sport in Ashland College. He presented a somewhat unique aspect in being the only married man on the squad.

THEODORE "PETE" DYBO

The old frigate "Constitution" didn't mean any more to our forefathers than "Pete" Dybo meant to our football team. Bearing the scars and ravages of many a contest we find our smiling friend receiving a sheepskin as a reward of four years' diligent labor. The old hard luck jinx followed Pete throughout his college career, but outside of a set of false teeth he braved the storms with the same spirit as he evinced in fighting fires as a member of the Ashland Fire Department.

EDWARD CAMPBELL

Backfield

"Snooks" proved that good goods comes in small bulky packages and often reacts like poison on the opposing teams. Playing a halfback position he starred throughout the year, fought his way into a regular berth and demonstrated his worth on many occasions. -A cousin of "Dutch" Baker's and hailing from Warren, we find him a worthy new edition even if he does hold warm regards for the little town of Niles Junction.

PAUL WATSON

End

Crack Coshocton tackle and a utility man able to fill in at almost any position on the team proved "Huck" to be a real asset to any team's retinue. A steady player of great ability, always fighting to win and able to take any and all the bumps that came his way. Returning them with good measure assures us that he will be in there fighting for Ashland College next year.

SAMUEL BOYER

Backfield

Alternating at quarter and halfback positions, possessing a cool head, a driving pair of educated feet, we find Sam among the leaders in the school sport columns, reaching the heights of his glory when he dashed for a touchdown on the opening play of the game against Wilmington College. He finished out the season as a crack player.

PAUL JOHNSON

Backfield

Better known as "Beany" and one of the speed merchants of the team, helped to make him one of the regular halfbacks on the squad and with his clean sportsmanship and fair play spirit acting as an incentive to the rest of the team we give credit to him as one of the main cogs in the football machine. He dropped school at the end of the semester and will enter West Point Military Academy this summer.

FRANK C. FOX

Backfield

One of the smallest members of the squad but possessing such an individualistic brand of open field running that he just couldn't be stopped, we find our own little "Albie Booth" a letter man promising many great things for the next two seasons. It was all in the day's work for him to rip off ten or fifteen yards around the end and with a little seasoning will prove to be one of the siege guns next year.

CARL KOLP

End

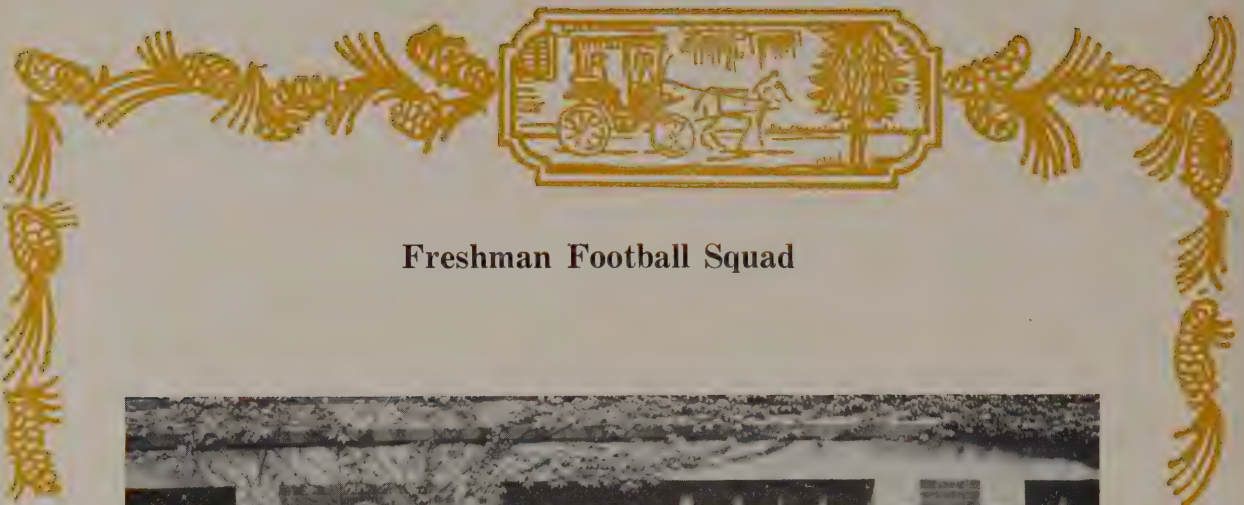

The blond haired boy from Canton returned to school this year after a semester's absence and proceeded to tear things up as an end. A deadly tackler and a good pass receiver placed him high in the regard of all as a football player of great ability.

Manager NOEL "BUD" SHAFFER

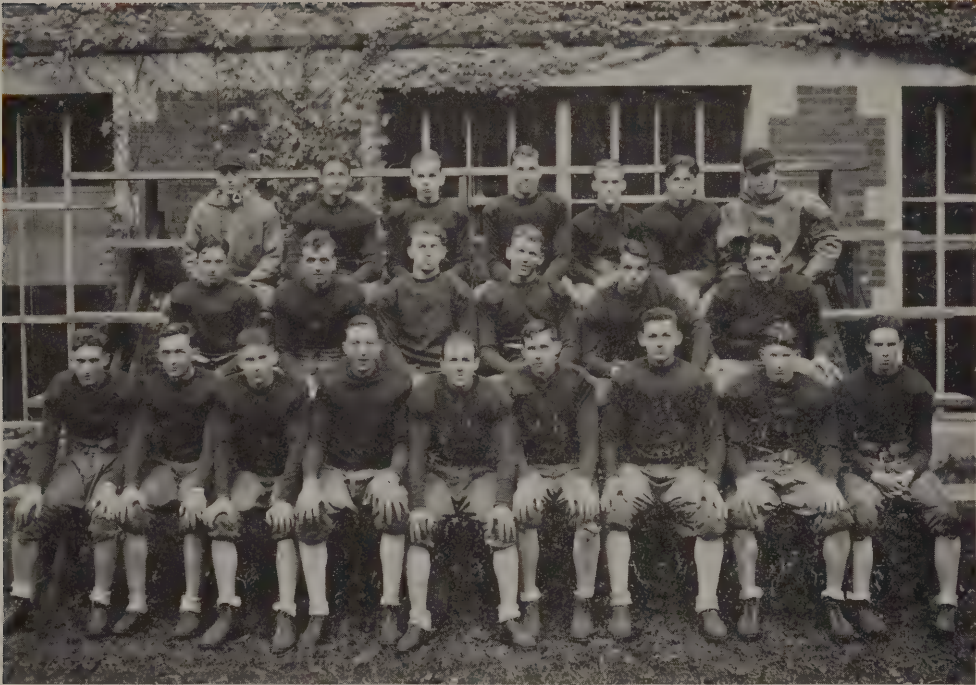

Smiling "Bud" Shaffer, a prime favorite with all the members of the squad, conscientious, likeable and business like, playing no favorites and always exerting himself in order to make the squad comfortable leads us to proclaim him as one of the most capable and best managers to ever hand out a clean pair of socks at the hilltop gymnasium.

1930

Freshman Football Squad

Bottom row (left to right)—Robert Clifford, Clayton Kunkler, Garland Christian, Murray Beegley, Edmund Fulton, Raymond Carl, Lawrence Yarman, Leo Huston, Leland Girton.

Second row.—Earl Owens, Donald Shipman, Edwin Morr, Ross Awwiller, Orville Kibler, John Tinkey.

Top row.—Ralph Thauvette (assistant coach), Gerald Emmons, James Potter, Donald Kick, James Kyler, Roy MacDonald, Herbert Slough (assistant coach).

Freshman Football

The freshman football squad was inaugurated this year with the entrance of Ashland College into the Ohio Conference and was under the direct supervision of Head Coach Schmuck with Ralph Thauvette acting in the capacity of Freshman Coach. Although not playing a definite schedule they were afforded plenty of competition in their regular workouts with the varsity squad.

The gridiron frequently resounded with the din and noise aroused by the meetings in scrimmage of these two squads. The squad was composed of thirty husky boys, the majority of them possessing individual qualities that will be a big aid in their fight for varsity positions next year.

The team this year was equipped with characteristic gold colored uniforms easily discernible from the varsity purple and all in all acted as separate units using their own system of plays and generally securing the fundamentals of the game in preparation for their future years of service.

Too much credit cannot be given to Mr. Thauvette for his capable coaching and to the boys for their cooperative playing. We really expect to hear from a great many of these boys in the years to come.

Basketball

Varsity Basketball Squad

Front row (left to right)—Edward Campbell, Edward Erb, Robert Riley, Harry Wike (captain), Edward Warstler, Frank Lonero, Maurice Johnson.

Second row—Ralph Thauvette (manager), Ray Novotny, Emerson Waltz, Paul Watson, Bernard Workman, Samuel Boyer, Fred Schmuck (coach).

Following is a schedule of last year's games with the wins and losses:

Ashland, 28;	Muskingum,	18
Ashland, 42;	Kenyon	30
Ashland, 59;	Otterbein,	25
Ashland, 36;	Wittenberg,	22
Ashland, 29;	Western Reserve,	21
Ashland, 18;	Canisius,	26
Ashland, 42;	Niagara,	31
Ashland, 33;	St. Bonaventure	34
Ashland, 41;	Edinboro,	29
Ashland, 34;	Cleveland Chiropody	24
Ashland, 42;	Findlay,	33
Ashland, 28;	Ohio State B	27
Ashland, 32;	Ohio Northern,	31
Ashland, 38;	Wooster,	53
Ashland, 29;	Kenyon,	39
Ashland, 47;	Slippery Rock	34
Ashland, 45;	Kent,	36
Ashland, 38;	Findlay,	36
Ashland, 21;	Slippery Rock,	26
Ashland, 47;	Kent,	38

729

613

Varsity Basketball

Basketball, the major winter sport in the college, enjoyed another of its many recent successful seasons and set an unusually fine record for future teams to shoot at. Coach Schmuck developed a quintet that threatened state scoring honors and demonstrated the coordination and group play that are so in evidence in all the Schmuck machines at Ashland College.

Starting the season with a veteran team from last year and a squad of reserve material that constantly threatened to shake the pedestals of the varsity men, our team played out a schedule of twenty games losing five of this number and winning fifteen.

Considering the fact that the majority of the five losses were incurred on trips when the boys were playing every night, we can truthfully say that this past season ranks with the best that we have ever had on the hill-top school. Joining the conference has presented a greater coaching problem in the way of material at the school as we play teams that have a much greater drawing card than we have, but the caliber of the athletes in the college seems to be such that we will be able to cope with any and all of our opponents.

The squad loses but one man by graduation this year and so we take but little liberty in prophesying for Ashland College another great year in the realm of basketball.

Harry Reuben Wike of Lewistown, Pa., was captain of the Purple Varsity during the past season and completed the schedule as high scorer. He played the center position. Other members of the varsity quintet were Ed Erb and Ed Warstler at guards and Bob Riley and Hap Johnson at the forward berths.

1931 CAGE SCHEDULE

Jan. 6—Muskingum at New Concord.
Jan. 8—Wooster here.
Jan. 17—Case here.
Jan. 24—Wooster at Wooster.
Jan. 30—Wittenberg at Springfield.
Jan. 31—Dayton at Dayton.
Feb. 4—Kenyon here.
Feb. 7—Ohio Northern here.
Feb. 13—Mt. Union here.
Feb. 20—Marietta here.
Feb. 25—Kenyon at Gambier.
Feb. 28—Baldwin-Wallace at Berea.

CAPTAIN HARRY REUBEN WIKE

Center

Big Rube finished out his third year of basketball competition by repeating another year of the flashy brand of ball he is so capable of displaying. Second high scorer in the State of Ohio and high scorer of the Ashland team for the past two years places this lanky lad as the best center to ever dribble a basketball on an Ashland College court. He proved to be a capable leader and an inspiring factor in all matters pertaining to the success of the team. He has one more year of competition for Ashland.

GLENN WARSTLER

Guard

Big Ed playing the back guard position displayed the same brand of form that he has so successfully demonstrated in all the other branches of sport he has engaged in. Although leaving school at the end of the first semester he proved up to that time that he was capable of carrying the purple and gold colors with honor and ability in any of the school's basketball frays. This is Ed's last year of basketball participation. A great athletic career closed with a fitting climax.

MAURICE JOHNSON

Forward

For the past three years "Happy" has been a member of the squad and a letter man of more than passing ability, a good floor man and a fine shot. He often supplied that necessary impetus needed to continue a winning streak. Long and lanky, he possessed the ideal basketball form and this coupled with a personality of the best brings him into prominence as one of the best players on the squad.

EDWARD ERB

Guard

Playing a running guard position and displaying a style of long range shooting that went a long way toward proving his worth in psychological moments when the breaks of the game had to be met and coped with, the other Big Ed always came through and demonstrated that his four year career in basketball did not come as the result of a fluke but rather as a reward for many long hours of practice and conscientious effort. He graduates this year and will leave a position that has been very capably filled.

CAPTAIN-ELECT ROBERT RILEY

Forward

Happy-go-lucky Bob, always smiling and always crashing through with a class of unexcelled basketball that went far toward placing him as one of the best forwards in the state. He was picked as one of the best players to meet Wooster College this season and is undoubtedly an asset to our college. Bob is our captain next season and will lead a team of veteran men out upon the court. We have utmost reliance in his leadership and are heartily sure of another great season.

RAY NOVOTNY

Forward

Playing a forward position this lad broke into quite a few games and displayed a knowledge of the game far above the average. Although lacking a few quarters of securing a letter, we tender him our congratulations on a season well played and express our sorrow upon his graduation this spring.

BERNARD WORKMAN

Guard

Upon the departure of Warstler his position was alternately filled by Curly to great advantage. He lacked a few quarters of making his letter but proved that he will be a hard man to handle when the next basketball season rolls around.

FRANK LONERO

Forward

Classy Cleveland forward, the proud possessor of three letters in basketball bids our court adieu this year after having give the college the best of his ability, athletically and scholastically. Tony came to us with the migrating group from Cleveland and save for a short lay off in 1928 due to an injured knee, participated in all the major sports. We all know this lad will be a great success in life for he has all the necessary requisites to take Dame Fortune into camp.

EMERSON WALTZ

Center

Tall and well built, with a good foundation on the fundamentals of the game this boy will be heard of to good advantage at the center position next year.

SAMUEL BOYER

Forward

The youngest member of the team but carrying a veteran's experience in his head, cool under fire and perhaps the best floor man on the team, he fitted into the machine very easily and adapted himself to the style of play used. Sam is a very valuable man in that he has two more years of competition ahead of him and with this seasoning will stand out as one of the best in the years to come. He hails from Meyersdale, Pennsylvania, and has won varsity letters in all the major sports.

PAUL WATSON

Guard

Huck proved to be a very capable guard throughout the season and lacked but a few quarters of making his letter. He displays great promise and will, we predict, come through with a crash next season.

EDWARD CAMPBELL

Guard

Trying his luck at basketball for the first time this year Snooky proceeded to show the boys that they are going to have a first class contender next year for the guard position. He hails from Warren High School, not the Niles Junction so many people associate his name with.

Freshman Basketball

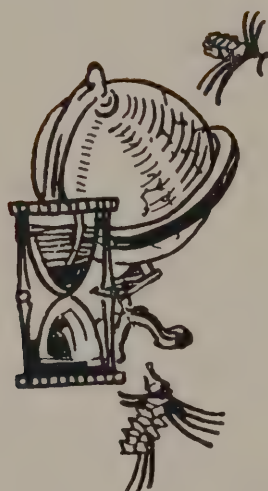

An Ashland College freshman basketball team furnished plenty of opposition for the purple varsity last season. Special emphasis was placed on the '33 squad this year as in it Coach Schmuck hopes to find good first-string material for next year. With the loss of Ed Erb, Hap Johnson, Tony Lonero and Ray Novotny, there will be several positions open on the varsity when the time comes for reorganization.

This is the first season that numerals were awarded to members of the freshman squad. The players were sent through their workouts by Coach Schmuck, who instructed them in varsity plays and prepared them for conference competition next season.

Some of the most promising material on the freshman squad were such players as Shipman, MacDonald, Wycoff, Kibler, Emmons, Enck, Paxton, and several others. Their return to Ashland College next season will strengthen the varsity in no small way.

Although the yearlings are unable to meet other Ohio college frosh teams, according to a conference ruling, they were consistently sent against the varsity and occasionally outplayed their superiors.

Baseball-Tennis

Baseball Squad

Sitting (left to right)—Paul Watson (Assistant Manager), Royd Hodge, Donald Edmonson, Donald Foley, Bernard Workman, Edward Campbell, Marshall Remy, Fred Schmuck (coach).

Standing—Ralph Thauvette, Theodore Henning, Samuel Boyer, Glenn Workman, Edward Erb, Harold Treace, Harold Gingrich, Robert Uhl (manager).

Baseball

The baseball schedule this year was one of the hardest that Ashland has faced for a good many seasons and entails some of the best talent in the state. Although a great many men were lost by graduation last year we feel rather confident of a good season after watching the boys in preliminary practice and in the two opening games.

There seems to be a dearth of good pitching material on the hill this year but this problem will be overcome with the development of several likely prospects that the coach is at present working on. All the games on the schedule are conference games, and out of this group we predict a very successful margin in the win column. The schedule:

April 25	Otterbein, 3; Ashland, 17.
April 26	Northern, 10; Ashland, 5.
April 30	Baldwin-Wallace, 1; Ashland, 5.
May 2	Reserve, 9; Ashland, 12.
May 9	Northern, 7; Ashland, 5.
May 10	Baldwin-Wallace, 14; Ashland, 3.
May 14	Kenyon, 3; Ashland, 4.
May 17	Otterbein, here.
May 21	Wooster, away.
May 24	Wooster, here.
May 28	Reserve, here.
June 2	Kenyon, here.

Varsity Tennis

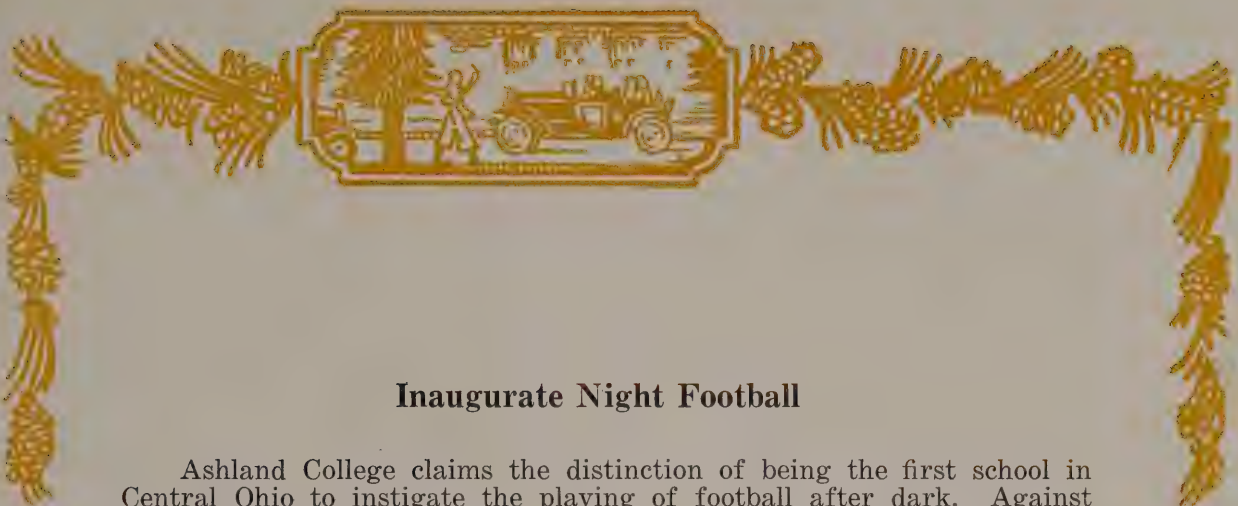

Tennis, while still in its infancy at the college, is rapidly developing to the point where it is now recognized in its rightful place in the athletic group. The schedule this year presents some of the best college competition we can obtain and to meet this hazard we offer a team composed of all veteran men of last year's tennis squad.

The members of this team have worked long and hard and we feel that they are in a position now to demonstrate their true value to the college. They have at their disposal five first class hard clay courts on the college campus and it is here that all the match plays are exhibited.

Members of this year's net squad are Ray Novotny, Donald Maxheimer, Yoshio Wajima and Douglas Price. All have years of preparation and should offer strong competition for our opponents this spring. The schedule follows:

April 26—Ashland, 0; Otterbein, 6.
May 2—Ashland, 1; Wooster, 5.
May 10—Wittenberg, here.
May 17—Wittenberg, away.
May 22—Kenyon, away.
May 31—Otterbein, away.
June 2—Kenyon, here.

Inaugurate Night Football

Ashland College claims the distinction of being the first school in Central Ohio to instigate the playing of football after dark. Against Findlay College last October, Ashland inaugurated the playing of the greatest American sport on an illuminated field. So successful was the nocturnal game that the college athletic officials have scheduled several night games for next season on the Ashland gridiron.

Forty-eight 1,000 watt lamps flooded the college football stadium and presented an illumination as light as a mid-July day and a great deal lighter than many days on which the college has played football. There are six poles on each side of the gridiron, with four 1,000-watt lamps on each one.

The lights were placed on poles 40 feet high which, it was revealed, allowed illumination for the highest punts that were kicked.

Ashland fans were tremendously interested in the night football experiment, the first to be tried in this section of the state. More than 1,000 persons walked through the turnstiles in the opening night game with Coach Harry J. Barnhart's Findlay collegians.

A glance at the 1930 grid schedule reveals the fact that the curtain goes up with a night game against Kalamazoo College of Michigan. Several other games are booked to be played after the sun goes down.

LET'S MAKE IT TWO STRAIGHT

Following are the scores of the Ashland-Wooster College football teams since the two rivals competed against each other on the gridiron. Can we repeat the 1928 victory in 1930?

1922—Ashland,	0;	Wooster,	7.
1923—Ashland,	0;	Wooster,	7.
1924—Ashland,	0;	Wooster,	17.
1925—Ashland,	0;	Wooster,	7.
1926—Ashland,	0;	Wooster,	13.
1927—Ashland,	0;	Wooster,	28.
1928—Ashland,	20;	Wooster,	13.
1929—No game.
1930—Ashland,	?	Wooster,	?

Features

The May Queen

MISS ETHEL BAUM

May Day

Crowning of the May Queen, Miss Ethel Baum of Ashland, was the opening of the pageant ceremonies which took place on the college athletic field Saturday, May 24. Artistic settings had been placed on the field for the presentation of the beautiful pageant "The Pageant of the Queens," which was under the direction of Miss Thelma Slack, head of the college dramatic department, and for the crowning of the 1930 May Queen.

Miss Baum chose for her attendants Miss Virginia Schultz, Miss Mary Fluke, Miss Helen Smilie, Miss Annabelle McKinley, Miss Betty Beal and Miss Vera Lindower. Six men of honor were also selected by Miss Baum to attend her during the pageant.

Miss Baum, better known as "Beth" on the college campus and among her host of friends, is the first girl to be chosen May Queen from the city of Ashland, which alone, is a distinct honor. She succeeds Miss Opal Rupert of Polk, Ohio.

The 1930 May Queen is an attractive blond with blue eyes and long hair. She is a member of the Junior Class and had part in the Junior Class Play. She is secretary of the Sociological Club.

Miss Edith Bentz impersonated Catherine the Great of Russia in the pageant. Miss Mary Gardner was Marie Antoinette of France for the festivities. Miss Agnes Baker the Chinese Empress der Ling and Miss Betty Glover portrayed Queen Elizabeth of England. An African queen was impersonated by Miss Bernice Berkheiser and Miss Ruth Snyder acted as queen of the Aztec Indians.

Junior Class Play Cast

Bottom row (left to right)—Claretta Ross, Rosaline Barry, Elizabeth Beal, Kathryn Bell, Mary Bittinger, Thelma Slack (directress).

Top row—Ernest Pine, Carl Kolp, Donald Carter, Bernard Workman, DeForest Lewis, Bernard Finley.

"Merton of the Movies"

"Merton of the Movies," the Ashland College Junior Class Play, was presented on April 3 in McDowell Auditorium before an appreciative audience. The play was a dramatization of Harry Leon Wilson's story of the same name by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly. It was under the direction of Miss Thelma Slack, head of the college dramatic department.

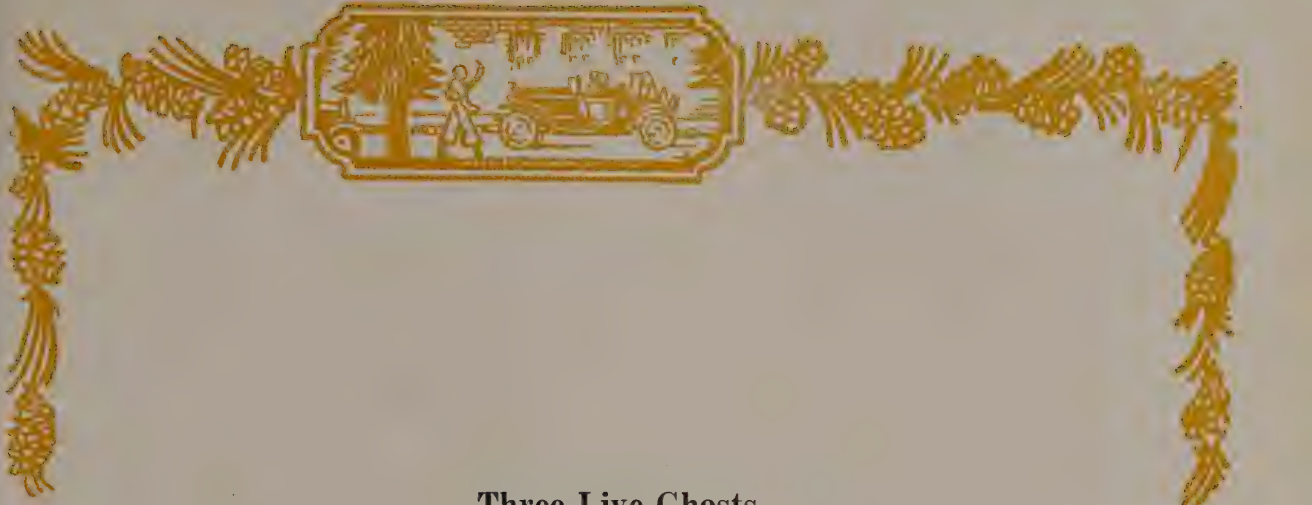

The production depicted the desire of a small town boy to get into the movies—the serious side of them and not from the comedy angle. Donald Carter, who enacted the leading role, portrayed his part in an impressive fashion. It would be quite difficult to select another member of the Class of '31 to take the part of Merton Gill as Carter did very effectively.

The play was a comedy mystery in three acts.

Other members of the cast were: Amos G. Gashwiler, Bernard Finley; Elmer Huff, Ernest Pine; Thessie Kearns, Ethel Baum; Casting Director, Rosalyn Barry; J. Lester Montague, Reid Thompson; Sigmond Rosenblatt, DeForest Lewis; Weller, Donald Baker; Camera-man, Bernard Finley; The Montague Girl, Elizabeth Beal; Harold Parmalee, Carl Kolp; Beulah Baxter, Mary Fluke; Muriel Mercer, Mary Arminda Bittinger; Jeff Baird, Bernard Workman; Mrs. Patterson, Claretta Ross; Mr. Walberg, Marshall McCuen,

PINE WHISPERS

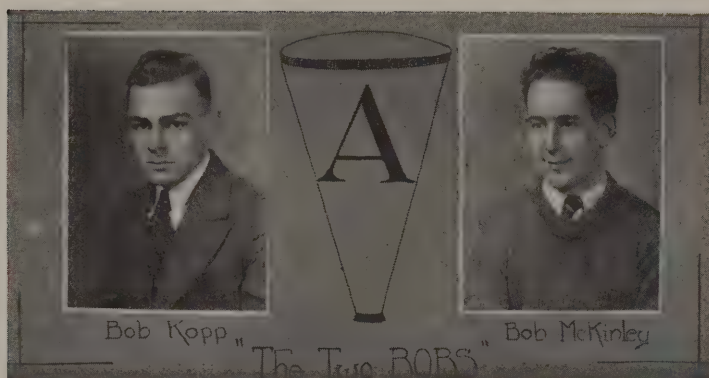

Three Live Ghosts

Members of the Senior Class presented their class play, "Three Live Ghosts," on May 23 in McDowell Auditorium. A large audience was on hand to appreciate the play which is one of the last memories left to the institution by the graduating class. The production was directed by Miss Thelma Slack, head of the college dramatic department.

Cassel Jacobs had the role of Spoofy, one of the three live ghosts. Jacobs was at an advantage over the other members of the cast because of his dramatic ability and character interpretations. Frederick P. Hare, Sr., and Raymond Novotny were the other two of the ghostly trio. In the play Hare was known as William Foster and Novotny was Jimmie Bubbins. Robert McKinley portrayed the part of Mr. Briggs of Scotland Yard, a valuable detective in solving the mystery of the Three Live Ghosts.

Miss Betty Glover was seen as Mrs. Grubbins, and Miss Betty Ringle was Miss Woofers, playing opposite Novotny. Miss Dorothy Oberholtzer played opposite Hare as Rose Gordon. Miss Christine Witter posed as Lady Liecester to identify Spoofy. Other detectives who aided in solving the mystery are Bolton, an American detective, played by Frank Lonero and Conard Sandy as Benson.

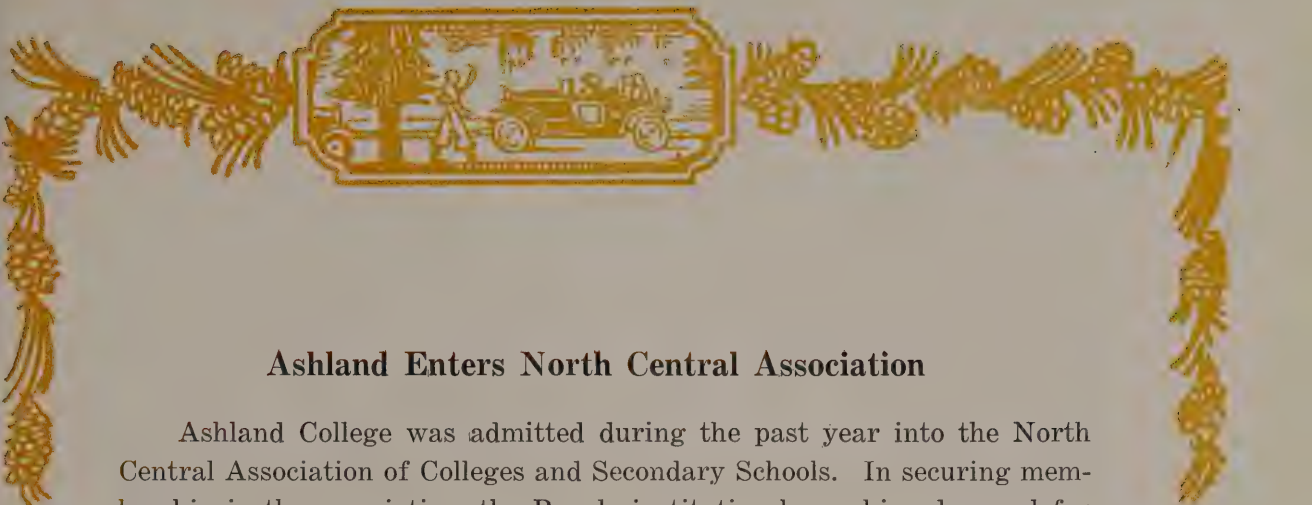

Cheerleaders

During the past year, cheerleading has played a major part during Ashland College's athletic contests. The student body was organized at each game in such a manner that cheers could be led with much effectiveness. Robert McKinley, senior, and Robert Kopp, junior, led the yells like veterans and are to be complimented on their fine piece of work.

Ashland cheers for its opponents as well as for its own athletic teams. Win or lose, Ashland makes it her motto in her cheers to appreciate the noble effort that the opposition has put forth.

The varsity cheerleaders have been assisted by Robert Kopp, sophomore, and Edwin Mowery, freshman. Kopp, Sr., will be in charge of cheerleading next year.

Ashland Enters North Central Association

Ashland College was admitted during the past year into the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. In securing membership in the association, the Purple institution has achieved a goal for which it has been working for years. Membership in the association means that Ashland College is fully recognized as an educational institution of the first rank. Credits of students attending Ashland will be fully recognized by the leading schools in the country. The North Central is the largest association of its kind in the country.

On March 20, 1930, the Ashland College Band and the student body celebrated the entrance into the association by meeting Doctor Jacobs and Doctor Anspach at the Ashland station and escorting them to the college where a rally was conducted in the college chapel.

Doctor Jacobs was formally received at a reception held Thursday evening, March 27, in the college library. Several hundred students, members of the faculty and townsmen attended the celebration to help rejoice over the biggest event in the history of the college.

Lack of sufficient endowment has been the big handicap of the school in securing recognition of the leading association of colleges. It is only within the past year that the endowment fund has surpassed the requirements of the association.

At the present time, Ashland College has an endowment of more than $600,000, including permanent and living endowment. The college grounds, consisting of 18 acres with the buildings and their equipment are valued at $500,00, making the school more than a million dollar institution.

In addition to membership in the North Central Association, Ashland College also sustains membership in the following associations: The Association of American Colleges, The American Association of Collegiate Registrars, the Ohio Association of Collegiate Registrars and the Ohio Athletic Conference.

with the exception of sports. This branch of the news has been in the hands of W. Sherwood Gutshall, member of the Junior class, for the past two years. With Ashland's entrance into the Ohio Conference, it is evident that the Purple athletic teams will deserve statewide publicity in every future year.

for Ashland to expect to be utilized by Proof the Deat Ashland

1930

AMONG THOSE PRESENT

Pine Ashman "Kling" Carter
THE CALIFORNIA QUARTET

THE REMAINS of the Frosh Gym Class!

Also our Tennis Stars - Love?

"MERTON of the MOVIES"

And then—We have

The Exceptional Child!

PINE WHISPERS

The F. E. Myers & Bros. Co.

WORLD HEADQUARTERS FOR

MYERS

Hand and Windmill, Well and Cistern Pumps, Pump Stands, Tank Pumps, Pumping Jacks and Cylinders for every purpose.

Hand and Power Systems for Homes, Farms, Estates, Public and Private Institutions.

Self-Oiling Power Spray Pumps, Nozzles, Hose and Fittings for Spraying, Cold Water Painting, Whitewashing and Disinfecting.

Hay and Grain Unloading Tools for Unloading Field Crops from the Wagon into the Mow.

Stay-on and Tubular Door Hangers and Tracks for Sliding Doors on Barns, Garages, Storages and Similar Buildings.

Hay Rack Clamps, Gate Hangers, Store Ladders and Accessories.

Take Time Some Day and Visit the Myers Factory. It is a Home Institution with a National Reputation for Dependable Products.

Ashland, Ohio
ASHLAND PUMP AND HAY TOOL WORKS

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Capital $150,000.00

Surplus $100,000.00

4% Paid on Time Certificates and Savings Accounts

Safe Deposit Boxes

Traveller's Checks

Member Federal Reserve Bank

Quality

Phone 962 Main

Service

WEST

DRY CLEANING CO.

Miraclean

Clean as a breath of spring

215 East Main Street

West Dry Cleaning Co.
Homer Beck

We Call for and Deliver

Phone 1300 Main

Ashland Taxicab & Baggage Co.

D. E. Finley, Prop.

Cars for Hire

Phone 1300 Main

The Home Hardware

For Good

Hardware and Roofing

312 Orange St. Phone 1008 Main

125 Church Street

Telephone 909 Red

Ashland News Co.

L. E. Buterbaugh, Mgr.

Papers, Magazines, Tobacco, Cigars and Confectioneries

Ashland, Ohio

Read the advertisements. Then patronize the advertisers.

Advertisers in this book are back of the college. Let's patronize them.

Advertisers in this Pine Whispers made possible the publication. Why not trade at their stores?

Compliments of NORRIS CLEANING CO.

"If Norris Cleans It—It's Clean"

Phone Office
1407 Main 237 E. Main St.

Service Dependability

If it's insurance of any nature of course, see

R. V. McConnell

Phone 66 Main

Farmers Bank Bldg. Ashland

News Shoppe

Magazines and Papers

Candies
Ice Cream
Soft Drinks

West Second Street
Opposite Court House

Midnight or Noon

The STAR TELEPHONE COMPANY

is always ready to serve you

Stahl's Hardware

Offers
A Choice Selection of Tennis Balls and Rackets

J. E. Matthews

Dealer in

EGGS AND POULTRY
East Main St. Phone 875 Main

Ashland, Ohio

Compliments of VIRGINIA AUTO WRECKING CO.

Dealers in Old Worn Out Autos and Trucks. Used Tires, Radiators and Batteries at very Reasonable Prices

Replacement parts for all makes of cars

Virginia Ave. Ashland, Ohio

Phone 1414 Main

Say it with good shoes correctly fitted and you will not need flowers so soon.

Charles I. Helbert

Orange Street

Meats of Quality

Art Sponsler & Son

Phone 308 Main Center Street

Texaco Gas and Lubricants of All Kinds at the

TEXACO Service Station on the Corner

O. H. Dye, Proprietor

SHOES

After a visit to our store we believe you will be impressed with both the style and quality.

Careful Fitting Our Motto

Chas. C. Williams

Moshers

Men's Wear of Quality

15 East Main Street

Established 1889

THOMAS STORE

Ashland County's Largest Wallpaper and Paint Store

Wall Paper, Paint and Varnish, Dry Paste
Glue, Sanitas, Roger's Lacquer

145 W. Main Phone 842 Main

Wahl's

REPAIR SHOP

It's Our Business to Repair Your Shoes.

We Double Their Life

West Main Street
Opposite Postoffice

UNION HARDWARE & SUPPLY CO.

Phone 39 Main

Builders' Hardware, House Furnishings,

Rochester Heatproof Wares
and Parker's Pens and Pencils
Our Specialties

A 14kt. Solid gold Gruen
Cartouche—you cannot fail to recognize the outstanding value of this dainty design, priced at $40

All Standard Watches Sold and Guaranteed at

Sharicks Jewelry Store

Patterson Electric

Wiring Fixtures and Appliances

Phone 1303 Main
Opposite Court House

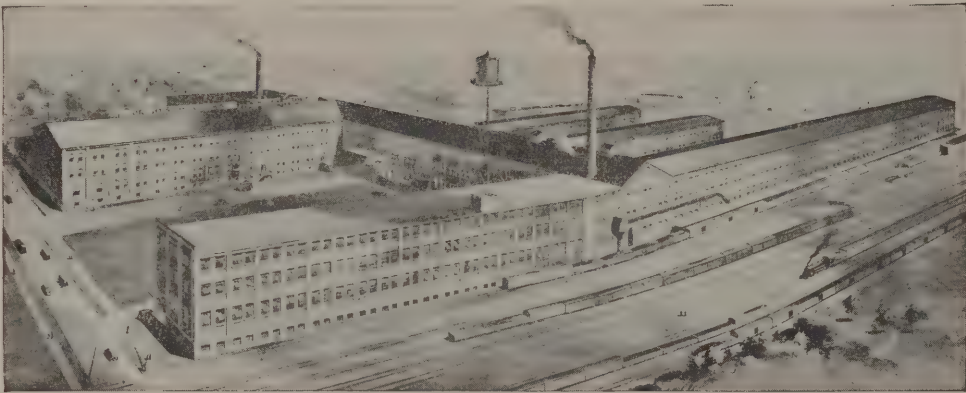

Compliments of

The
F. W. Woolworth Co.

Compliments

Dr. Hess & Clark, Inc.

Ashland, Ohio

Manufacturers of the Dr. Hess Line of Stock and Poultry Remedies
Disinfectants and Insecticides

Ashland Equity Exchange

Dealers in

Grain, Coal, Builders' Supplies,
Drain Tile, Sewer Pipe, Feed, Flour, Fertilizer, Fencing and Posts

Phone 861 Main

Compliments of

THE MOHICAN RUBBER COMPANY

Ashland, Ohio

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES FEDERAL TIRES AND TUBES RADIO SUPPLIES

PAY MET'S PAY CASH LESS

*In the Summertime
You Will Enjoy
Our Fountain*

Red Cross Drug Store

Opposite Farmers Bank
Ashland, Ohio

This Annual was printed by The Brethren Publishing Co.

324 Orange Street, Ashland, Ohio

QUALITY ABOVE ALL
Herff Jones Company

*Designers and Manufacturers of
High School and College Jewelry
and Commencement Invitations*

Official Jewelers to Ashland College

Betty B.: Lend me ten dollars to buy a haircut.

Vera L.: Here's the ten, but what will you do with the extra nine?

Betty B.: Buy a hat to conceal the haircut.

Dean: We have five new courses planned for next year.

President: But won't that increase the number flunking?

Dean: Oh, no. These courses are especially designed for football players.

O h i o F a r m e r s

Selected Dairy Products

Visit our dairy and see your favorite food prepared for you

FOLLOW
Bill McKee

Daily in

The Times-Gazette

and you'll follow accurately and completely the fortunes of

THE PURPLE

in Football, Basketball and Baseball will want to read about 1930 Football Triumphs of A. C.

SENIORS

SUBSCRIBE TO THE TIMES-GAZETTE

Ashland Ice Company

At Your Service

Phone 141 Main

The absent-minded professor had been killed. He jumped from an airplane and didn't open the parachute, because it wasn't raining.

Hank T.: When does a book become a classic?

Helen S.: When people who haven't read it begin to say they have.

"The Most For Your Money"

KIBLER CLOTHES

$22.50

THE TOGGERY SHOP

Sattler & Ganyard

Soft Drinks

Candies

"Meet Me at the Mecca"

Mercer & Myers

Proprietors

Fishing Tackle, Evinrude Motors

For Economical Transportation

CHEVROLET

Moore-McClaran Motor Sales

Chevrolet Sales and Service

Phone 1177 Main

Cleveland Ave., Ashland, Ohio

J. L. Donley

J. Paul Donley

J. L. Donley & Bro.

"The Elevator"

GRAIN, FLOUR, FEED, COAL AND BUILDERS' SUPPLIES

Phone 124 Main

"He done me wrong," wailed the statistic problems, as Ken Stoufer turned in his quiz paper.

Bob R.: What's the shape of a kiss?

Helen B.: Give me one and I'll call it square.

A Ford, driven by a college student, skidded perilously on a stretch of wet paving. An excited passerby ejaculated: "Gee! I'll bet his heart's still beating."

PARKE'S GOLD CAMEL TEA SERVICE BALLS

INDIVIDUAL SERVICE
"EVERY CUP A TREAT"
"THE WORLD'S FINEST"

Coffees
Canned Goods

Teas

Spices
Flavoring Extracts

L. H. PARKE COMPANY
Pittsburgh Philadelphia

C. W. Landis

GROCER

Exclusive Dealer for Richelieu Canned Food Products
and
The Battle Creek Food Products

Phones 204, 205 Main

Sold by Ashland's Leading Retailers IMPROVED MFG. CO.

Ray N.: I have an awful toothache.

Tony L.: I'd have it taken out if it was mine.

Ray N.: Yes, if it was yours, I would too.

The father who sent his son through college and all he got in return was a quarter-back.

THE FARMERS BANK

Responsibility $2,500,000.00

"Absolute Safety Plus Courteous Service"

We Are Boosters for Ashland College

Elite Manufacturing Co.

Ashland, Ohio

Makers of

"RELIABLE" Automobile Jacks

Compliments of Berwind Fuel Co.

Shippers of Berwind's Pocahontas and New River Coals and Berwind Pocahontas Briquets

1840 Union Trust Bldg.
Cleveland, Ohio

Mr. George: Look here, Mary Alice, I don't mind your sitting up late with that young man of yours, but I do object to his taking the morning paper when he goes!

Ernie P.: What keeps the moon from falling?

Howard E.: I guess it must be the beams.

"The evidence shows that you threw a brick at the night watchman."

"It shows more than that, your Honor; it shows that I hit him."

Professor: Why are you beating around the bush?

Curly W.: I'm looking for an inspiration so I can lead my class to freedom just as Moses did."

City Meat Market

M. F. Bails

Fresh and Cured Meats

Phone 1271 Main Ashland, O.

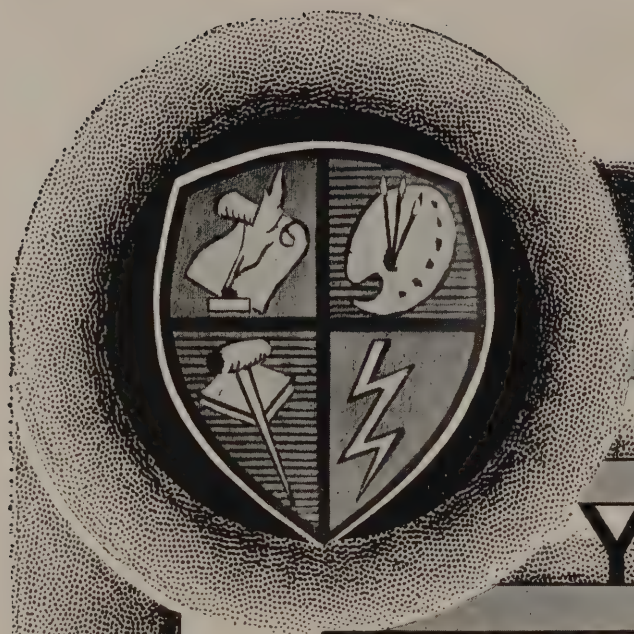

Hiland 2442

Concrete Work Cement Paving Waterproofing

Ira C. Wilcox, Inc. Contractors

Ira C. Wilcox, President
John A. Rishel, Secretary-Treasurer

6415 Hamilton Avenue
Pittsburgh, Pa.

WHEN YOU SEE THIS SHIELD
YOU KNOW
IT'S ANOTHER ANNUAL BY CANTON

THE CANTON ENGRAVING & ELECTROTYPE CO.
CANTON OHIO
ENGRAVERS OF THIS ANNUAL

PLANT No. 1

Catalogs Color Printing Book Binding
Calendars Specialties

The A. L. Garber Company

The Complete Printing Plant
Ashland, Ohio

Boxes Paper Cartons Cut Outs Displays, etc.

PLANT No. 2

ASHLAND COLLEGE SPECIAL

We serve Ashland, Mansfield, Wooster and Wellington.
Special trips anywhere by appointment.

AWWILLER COACH LINES, INC.

J. H. Awwiller, Manager

Come To The Blue Gift Shop

For Graduation Cards and Supplies. We have Everything for your Party Place Cards, Favors and Decorations

INGMAND INSURANCE AGENCY

Phone 309 Green
Myers' Bldg.

Compliments of

N. Strauss & Son

Similie—As reflective as a horse-fly at an auto show.

Helen P.: Sure, I gave my boy-friend the air.

Evelyn G.: Why?

Helen P.: Oh, he signed up for that course called Self-Management.

Candis S.: Ever hear the new mousetrap song?

Mary Ann S.: No, what is it?

Candis S.: My Sin.

Candy

Ice Cream

THE ROBINHOOD

LUNCH

"Cozy Corners for Quiet Chats"

Autographs

THE LURE OF THE GREAT OUTDOORS

The Best Clothes
For Your Favorite Sports
Are Ready
For You
White Ducks
Linen Knickers
Golf Sox
Polo Shirts Sweaters

Clothes
That Fit
YOU as well as The Sport Assuring Your Enjoyment of Every Summer Play Day Properly Fitted Athletic Underwear

CASSEL AND HARTSEL

THE GOLDEN RULE STORE

Ethel C.: Why is it, dear, that you give so many gifts to the trolley company?

Reuben W.: Gifts? What do you mean?

Ethel C.: Why, didn't you tell me that every time you got on a trolley car, you gave the conductor a token?

Evelyn G.: Why did you spell pneumonia "newmonia"?

Warren B.: The "k" on my typewriter is not working.

Eat at the

ASHLAND RESTAURANT

"The Best Place in Town for Good Food"

Under New Management

JAMES D. NOGGLE, Prop.

129 West Main Street

Phone 583 Main

MYERS

Launderers and Dry Cleaners

Phones: 72 Main and 926 Main

SOUTH STREET

ASHLAND, OHIO

OHIO DAIRY

All Dairy Products

"Eat Jay's Health Foods and Be Well"

JAY H. EMMONS, Prop.

Phone 210 Main

300 Orange Street

Advance Styles in Footwear

Footwear that reflects the whims and foibles of the day. Clever little touches that give you the satisfaction that comes from individuality in dress

CORNWELL & GAULT

Pure Drugs, Patent Medicines, Toilet Articles, Candy, Stationery, Magazines and Cigars

This store is a home-owned store and sells everything at cut rate prices

F. & M. Pharmacy

Flinn & Mowiser

60 East Main Street.

Opposite The Ohio Public Service Co.

Senior: What's your name?

Frosh: "Tom Mix.

Senior: You can't fool me—where's your rifle?

Casey H.: There was the Scotchman who sends his children to the night football games so that they can get their studies without wasting electricity.

Landlady: You seem quite fond of soup.

Ward P.: Well, my physician recommended the hot water cure.

One of the meanest girls we know was the co-ed who promised her boy friend a nice, long kiss if he'd drive around the cemetery on the left-hand side of the street and park next to a fire plug.

Ross A.: And these are the dirigible hangars.

Betty J.: Oh, Ross, is it really true that they fold up those big things and hang them up like clothes?

Tyrol N.: And where is your uncle, Bud?

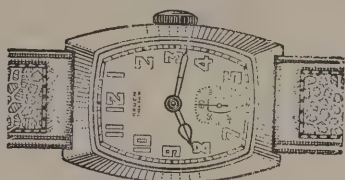

Bud S.: Oh, he had a terrible fever, so we put him in the cellar to heat the house.

John Nardini's Cafe

Home Made Candies, Ice Cream, Daggett's Chocolates

121 Church Street

Cost no more than other watches and you will be pleased.

Frank B. Downs

Reliable Jeweler

Compliments of

Ashland Hardware Company

Dealer of

Lowe Bros. Paints and Varnishes

30 W. Main St. 24 W. 2nd. St.

Phone 100 Black

College Professors and Students know that the City Market Grocery

M. D. Toomey

is the Place to buy

Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables at Reasonable Prices

Quality Service Courtesy

We Deliver With Our Own Delivery

Phone 1151 Main and 1152 Main

Purchase your college needs from the Annual advertisers.

Professor: Have you ever had foreign relations?

Betty J.: No, I only go out with American men.

Murray B.: Where is the Ashland-Wooster football game to be played this year?

Ted H.: In the Bull Pen.

Ted D.: What, you don't belong to the Alumni Association? How on earth did you ever escape it?

Alumnus: Well, ever since I graduated, I have been changing my address once a month and using a disguised handwriting.

A GOOD PLACE TO MEET

YOUR FRIENDS

24 Hour Service

Prince's Lunch

"Bill" Williams, Prop.

127 E. Main St. Phone 1275 Main

KRUMLAW'S

HOME OWNED STORES

Fancy Groceries and Meats

624 Orange St. 280 E. Main St.

Phone 565 Main. Phone 531 Main

Ashland, Ohio

F. Zehner & Son

Meats of Quality

and a Full Line of Groceries

Phones 150—159 Main

EXPERT SHOE REBUILDING

Quality Materials

Guaranteed Workmanship

Prompt and Courteous Service

"BEST" SHOE HOSPITAL

Cor. Orange and Second Streets

Phone 584 Black

A. A. BURNS, Prop.

Ashland Sanitary Dairy

Milk—Cream—Buttermilk

Butter—Ice Cream

Ask about Special Ice Cream for All Occasions

Cottage Cheese

Phone 118-119 Main

THESE INSTRUMENTS REPRESENT THE FINEST THAT CAN BE HAD IN THEIR PRICE CLASS

Pianos: Steinway and Son, Sohmer, Packard, Gulbransen.

Radios: Victor, Atwater Kent.

Smith's Music Store

Ashland's Music Center

Compliments of

The Rybolt Heater Co.

Ashland, Ohio

Manufacturers of

Warm Air Furnaces

Ohio Public Service Co.

"Subsidiary of Cities Service Co."

Everything Electrical

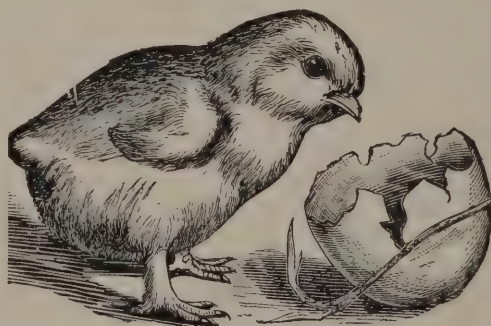

Ashland, Ohio

When in need of
PURE DRUGS, TOILET ARTICLES or anything generally found in a first class Pharmacy, remember 31 years in one location speaks for itself.

We have the agency for LIGGETT'S and MARY LEE Candies. Always fresh.

Pancoast Drug Store

The Rexall Store

FOR GREATER PROFITS Hatchery Chicks

Fourteen pure bred varieties. Our chicks come from free range flocks that have been carefully culled and mated for high egg production and standard qualities, by expert poultrymen. Our Hi-Quality Chicks are guaranteed to be satisfactory.

SILER HATCHERY, ASHLAND, O.
Wooster Road Phone 1236 Main

Meals by Reservation

Lunches at all Times

The Silver Maple Inn

Refreshments for Parties

Compliments of

The Atlas Coal and Supply Co.

Quality Coal

Everything in Builders' Supplies

Phone 1039 Main

East Seventh Street

C. E. Jamison

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES

SOFT AND SMOKELESS

COALS

Phone 127 Main

Gault Bros.

Will give you the best of service in Dry Cleaning

Try Us at the sign of the White Barrel

Gault Bros. Cleaning Co.

Phone 874 Black. 229 Orange St.

HETLER'S CONFECTAURANT

"Just Good Food"

LUNCH

SODA GRILL

CONFECTIONS

Banquet Service

22 West Main Street

Phone 1399 Main

White Studio

Is recognized as the leading studio in the country for College Annuals

If our work suits you, our prices will

THE PHOTOGRAPHS

in this Annual were made by us

220 West Forty-second Street

New York City

Success and Service

Success is only an evidence of community trust, to be perpetuated by still greater degrees of service.

One of the essentials of life is learning to save. Do not neglect this most important part of your education. We pay 4% on savings accounts.

THE ASHLAND BANK & SAVINGS CO.

Ashland, Ohio

COLTONS---Printers and Stationers

"Colton Prints It Better"

Students' Ring Binders—Loose Leaf Supplies—Drawing Paper and Pencils
Typewriter Papers—All Sizes and Weights

Third and Orange Streets

Ashland, Ohio

MARKET BAKERY

QUALITY GOODS OF ALL KINDS

The Enterprise Store

House Furnishings, Dinnerware, Fancy China, Glassware and Linoleums

Give Us a Call

Mowery Bros. Service Station

Ethyl and Benzol Gas Distributor of Veedol Oils
Fisk Tires

Phone 328 Black Ashland, O.

Buy from the merchants advertising in this book.

Two is company, three is a crowd, but when you have four you can play bridge.

Advertisers in this book have faith in Ashland College. In return, they ask for your patronage.

Russell B.: Is your roommate in love?

Donald C.: Is he! He's so bad off he makes me wake him up every fifteen minutes after he's gone to bed so he can go to sleep again thinking of his girl.

Mary B.: Do you call this a fast train?

Conductor: Yes, Ma'am.

Mary B.: Do you mind if I get off and see what it's fast to?

Frosh: Gee I'm in an awful fix.

Soph: What's the matter?

Frosh: I've spelled "professor" with two f's and don't know which one to cross out.

Christine W.: An ostrich is a silly bird. It hides its head in the sand.

Dorothy O.: How about a woman?
She packs her face in clay.

Lavender Beauty Shoppe

Permanent Waving a Specialty

Work by Appointment

Anne M. Schneider

Phone 409 Main 601 Cottage St.

An elderly lady walked into a railroad ticket office in Chicago and asked for a ticket to New York.

"Do you wish to go by Buffalo?"
asked the ticket agent.

"Certainly not," she replied, absentmindedly, "by train if you please."

Autographs

To be Continued by
The Staff of 1931

4/5/2013

FT

288245 5 12 00

HF GROUP - IN

